Pension Pushed At Lansing To Snare Democrat Votes

Russia Attacks Atlantic Pact As War Teaser

By EDDIE GILMORE

Moscow, April 1 (AP)—Russia today assailed the North Atlantic Pact as an offensive instrument designed to daunt nations which refuse to accept Anglo-American world domination.

An acid Soviet memorandum to the seven nations which originally sponsored the pact charged it violates international agreements and undermines "the very foundations" of the United Nations.

Flatly the note described the pact as being "directed against the Soviet Union" and as being "openly aggressive" in character.

It has "nothing in common either with the tasks of self-defense of the parties to the treaty or with the real recognition of the aims and principles of the United Nations organization," the memorandum charged.

The pact, the note asserted, violates existing treaties between Britain and Russia, France and Russia and the Potsdam and Yalta agreements.

Russia, the memorandum proclaimed, "does not intend to attack anyone."

Pointing to the exclusion of the Soviet Union from the treaty, the memorandum said that circumstance "can be explained only by the fact this treaty is directed against the U. S. S. R. as well as against the countries of the people's democracy (Other Communist nations)."

Participants have made warlike preparations including the stockpiling of atom bombs, maintenance of a joint British-American military staff at Washington, and a West European union defense organization with headquarters in France, the memorandum said.

"The North Atlantic Pact is designed to daunt the states which do not agree to obey the dictate of the Anglo-American grouping of the powers that lay claim to world domination," the memorandum alleged.

"The Soviet Union does not intend to attack anyone, and in no way threatens the United States, Great Britain, France, or the other signers of the treaty," it continued.

Russia charged that language in the treaty describing it as being formed within framework of the United Nations is a "cover up" of aggressive intent. None of the signers is threatened with attack, so Article 51 can not apply, it said. The memorandum asserted that the pact violates Article 53 of the U. N. Charter which bans regional groupings under certain circumstances.

Labor Law Assailed By Michigan Unions To Get New Version

Lansing, April 1 (AP)—A new version of the controversial Bonine-Tripp Labor law, including a unique plan for preventing strikes in public utilities, was ready for introduction in the Senate today.

Senators G. Elwood Bonine of Vandalia and Harold D. Tripp of Allegan, the two Republican sponsors of a 1947 bill bitterly assailed by labor, produced the new proposal.

It modifies portions assailed by organized labor and attempts to find a new way of stopping public utility strikes in place of their previous plan which was outlawed by the state supreme court.

Governor May Intervene

The unique feature was a provision which would permit the governor to declare a state of emergency if he thought an impending public utility strike would injure the public interest. In such a case, the governor then could order the disputing parties to arbitrate and a strike or lockout would be forbidden under severe penalties.

Bonine and Tripp proposed to first provide for mediation, conciliation or voluntary arbitration in public utility labor disputes.

If that has not worked in 30

Union Vote Help Asked By Governor

Detroit, April 1 (AP)—Governor Williams wants Detroit unionists to use their votes Monday to "dynamite the log jam of Republican obstruction" in the state legislature.

The Democratic governor campaigned for two of his party candidates in a speech last night before Local 155 of the CIO United Auto Workers.

Telling the unionists he was proud of their "confidence and support," he said spring election victories for Jack H. McCarthy and E. Burr Sherwood would give his supporters a majority on the state administrative board.

McCarthy is running on the Democratic ticket for state highway commissioner and Sherwood is a candidate for state superintendent of public instruction.

Williams blamed Republican legislators for failing to put into effect his administraton's program and for preventing appointment of "able, competent leadership" to administer the Michigan Unemployment Compensation commission.

Zeigler Criticized

He said the state senate's failure to ratify his nomination of Paul Stanchfield as MUCC director was strictly the fault of the GOP, in spite of a "family quarrel" within the Democratic ranks.

The governor added that his differences with nine Democratic senators over Stanchfield's appointment "would not have made any difference in the outcome of the battle" if the Republicans had not opposed his choice.

"It was the Republican party, acting on orders of the Republican policy committee, that killed that appointment" Williams told his audience.

He rapped Republican Highway Commissioner Charles Zeigler, who is seeking re-election, for his action in turning state highway maintenance contracts over to county boards of supervisors.

That move, the governor charged, deprived numerous highway workers of seniority rights and brought on a recent strike of road workers in Sanilac county.

GENERAL ON SPOT — U. S. Air Force Headquarters announced that Maj. Gen. Clayton L. Bissell, (above) former Assistant Army Chief of Staff, has been charged under the Articles of War and may be court-martialled. The announcement said "alleged acts" of Bissell while he was Military and Air Attache in London were being investigated to determine whether he would be brought before a court-martial.

Peace Hopes Hang On Atomic Bomb, Churchill Claims

By CORNELIUS F. HURLEY

Boston, April 1. (AP)——Doughty old Winston Churchill thrust out his bulldog jaw, and told the world that:

"Europe would have been communized—like Czechoslovakia—and London under bombardment some time ago but for the deterrent of the atomic bomb in the hands of the United States."

"But," he said, "war is not inevitable."

Speaking of the "war of nerves" he advised the Massachusetts Institute of Technology mid-century convocation last night:

"If we persevere steadfastly together, and allow no appeasement of tyranny and wrong-doing in any form, it may not be our nerve or the structure of our civilization which will break—something else will break, and peace may yet be preserved."

Reaction from abroad was slow, but the first British newspapers to comment called the speech a "recipe for peace" and "remarkable."

The comments came from three conservative British newspapers, the Yorkshire Post, the London Mail, and the Daily Telegraph.

Kremlin Menace Bared

In a letter expressing his regret at being unable to fulfill his own engagement to speak at the convocation, President Truman said:

"Mr. Churchill, I'm sure, will give you something that will be historical for this period."

Harold E. Stassen replaces the president as speaker.

Churchill rolled out in sonorous tones a blunt accusation that "thirteen men in the Kremlin * * * aiming at the rule of the world" had "self-preservation" as the root of their "sinister and malignant policy."

Repeating the phrase, "these thirteen men in the Kremlin," Churchill said their "missionaries are in every country as a fifth column, awaiting the day when they hope to be the absolute masters of their fellow-countrymen and pay off old scores."

"* * * The largest army in the world," Churchill said, "is in the hands of a government pursuing imperialistic expansion, as no czar or kaiser had ever done."

Churchill said that the western world was "now confronted with something quite as wicked, but in some ways more formidable than Hitler* * *."

The 74-year-old former prime minister of Britain said that the question, "Is time on our side?"

Measure Denounced By Republicans As Old Political Trick

Resolution Raps GOP For Blocking Legislation

By JAMES A. O. CROWE

Lansing, April 1 (AP)—Republican legislators screamed "politics" today at the Democrats for coming out with a pension plan for disabled veterans and berating the G. O. P. for stalling Governor Williams program.

The Democrats were openly accused of pitching the measures into the pre-election turmoil in the hope of attracting a few more votes.

The spring election is Monday.

Rep. Stanley Novak (D-Detroit) filed the pension bill. It calls for pensions up to $30 a month for disabled veterans of World War II.

Deficit Still Looms

Republicans doubted it would be considered seriously. They drew attention to the $61,000,000 deficit that Governor Williams says the state is facing.

"Pure politics," commented one member of the G. O. P.

The House Resolutions committee, dominated by Republicans was expected to quickly knife a resolution, introduced by Rep. Ed Carey (D-Detroit), demanding the G. O. P. "perform its duty" by passing Williams' bills.

These measures would provide more mental health facilities, standby rent control, a fair employment practices commission, a four per cent corporation income tax, and higher old age assistance, Workmen's Compensation and unemployment benefits.

"The Democratic minority," said Rep. Robert M. Montgomery (R-Lansing), majority floor leader, "is well aware that all these measures are being worked on. And all of us have calendars. We all know why this resolution was introduced."

Rep. Louis C. Cramton (R-Lapeer) suggested that the purpose of the resolution might be "to divert the attention of the state from the lamentable lack of cooperation between the Democratic governor and the Democratic members of another legislative body."

Cost $2,500,000

He referred to the revolt of nine Democratic senators which upset Williams' appointment of Paul L. Stanchfield as director of the Unemployment Compensation commission.

Novak said he planned to sponsor an amendment to his pension proposal to include World War I veterans. If this is done, he said, the plan would cost some $2,500,000 annually. He estimated 92,000 veterans, residents of Michigan before they entered service, would be eligible.

"No veterans organization has asked for this bill," he said, "but I expect their cooperation in putting it across."

The proposal is that veterans with 10 per cent disability would get $3 a month. The pension would be increased by $3 monthly for each additional 10 per cent disability up to $30 for 100 per cent.

In yesterday's session, the House passed bills to increase witness fees from $2 to $5 a day and permit civil suits against the city of Detroit in common pleas court.

Scheduled debate on a measure to split the $9,000,000 intangibles tax return between the state and municipalities was deferred until Wednesday on the motion of sponsors. They did not explain. Proceeds of the tax now go entirely to municipalities.

COPPER MINING ENDS

Houghton (AP)—Copper mining operations at Isle Royale—an institution for 95 years—will cease officially May 14 when the Isle Royale Copper Co. goes out of existence. Stockholders voted to dissolve the corporation because ore reserves are running out. The firm's last mining was done last December.

Flags At Halfstaff As Midland Mourns No.1 Citizen, Dr. Dow

Midland, Mich., April 1 (AP)—Flags in this chemical city flew at half staff today as Midland mourned the plane crash death of its No. 1 citizen—Dr. Willard H. Dow.

Dr. Dow, 52-year-old president of the Dow Chemical Co. and an internationally known chemist, lost his life near London, Ont., yesterday along with his wife, Martha, 51, and three others.

Their storm-disabled private plane plunged into a farmer's field and burst into flames. Only one passenger escaped death.

The stunned Midland city council immediately declared a 30-day period of mourning and asked all stores to close during the hours of Dr. Dow's funeral, yet to be arranged.

Plans were being made to bring the bodies of Dr. and Mrs. Dow, Mrs. Alta Campbell, 44, Pilot A. J. Bowie and Co-pilot Fred Clements back to their home city for burial.

Sole survivor of the crash was Calvin Campbell, husband of one of the victims and head of the Dow legal department. Campbell had been flying with his employer to Boston, where the Dow party planned to hear Winston Churchill speak at the mid-century convocation of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Campbell, who crawled away from the burning wreckage, said he tried in vain to drag his wife with him "but the flames became so hot that I lost my hold."

Dr. Dow's son, Herbert H. Dow the Second, is a student at M. I. T. He was expected to return to Midland for his parents' funeral services.

Dr. Dow, whose chemical empire included several widely-scattered subsidiaries, took over leadership of the Midland firm 19 years ago after the death of his father, Dr. Herbert H. Dow.

Besides his son, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. Helen Dow Whiting of Midland, and an architect brother, Alden Dow.

Repeal Of Oleo Tax On House Schedule

Opponents Seek Statute To Protect Butter

By FRANCIS M. LE MAY

Washington, April 1. (AP)—The house put repeal of the 63-year-old federal oleomargarine taxes on its schedule for today.

But the measure's opponents, while they conceded defeat in their long battle on the tax issue, strove desperately to pass another butter-protecting statute — one outlawing the interstate shipment or sale of yellow margarine.

Tempers flared yesterday, as members from northern dairy districts pressed their battle against southerners and members from northern cities carrying the banner for oleomargarine.

In the uproarous debate, the interests of the housewife, the cow, 2,500,000 dairy farmers, 24 oleomargarine manufacturers, and cotton, peanut and soybean farmers all come in for vigorous support from the lawhakers.

Oil from the last-mentioned products is used in making oleomargarine.

The federal government now imposes a 10 cents a pound tax on yellow oleomargarine and ¼ cent on the uncolored product. There also are special taxes on manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers.

Many states also restrict the sale of oleomargarine.

Capitol Cocktail Uses Alaskan Ice, 30,000 Years Old

Washington, April 1 (AP)—The latest capitol cocktail: Pineapple juice cooled with Alaskan glacial ice estimated to be 30,000 years old.

Such drinks were served yesterday to seal the bonds of friendship between Hawaii and Alaska. They were enjoyed by Delegate Joseph R. Farrington of Hawaii who provided the pineapple juice, Delegate E. L. Bartlett of Alaska, whose territory furnished the glacial ice, and Governor Ernest Gruening of Alaska.

The ice from the Mendenhall glacier, 12 miles north of Juneau, was flown here by William L. Baker of Ketchikan, editor and publisher of the Alaska Chronicle, who accompanied a party of Gruening supporters from the territory.

The little party was held in the office of Delegate Bartlett.

Dictator Of Syria Says Old Regime Was Weak, Rotten

Damascus, Syria, April 1 (AP)—Brig. Husni Zayim, new dictator of Syria, told interviewers last night he overthrew the old government because it was "rotten" and too weak to "face Communism" and other problems.

Zayim said he intends to restore civil government as soon as possible, but that if his efforts to form a cabinet fail he will proclaim military rule.

The brigadier, army chief of staff, engineered a bloodless coup d'etat at dawn Wednesday, proclaiming himself the temporary dictator until democratic rule can be established.

Three Die in Crash Of Air Force C-47

Fort Bragg, N. C., April 1 (AP)—An air force C-47 transport plane crashed near Pope Field here yesterday killing three officers.

The Fort Bragg public information office said the plane crashed and burned as it attempted an emergency landing in a field near the Pope base officers club.

Victims, all based at Pope Field, were identified as First Lt. Allen A. Hall, jr., pilot, Eldorado, Ark.; Second Lt. Kenneth W. Thompson, co-pilot, Route 15, Milwaukee, Wis., and Second Lt. J. M. Petrie of Cheverly, Md.

Plug That Glows Newest Fish Lure

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

New York, April 1 (AP)—Newest trick to hit the tackle shops this spring is a plug that appears to glow in the water.

A pair of University of California chemists developed the lacquer, which tests have proven alluring to fish along the west coast.

The paint has the quality of keeping its color intensity when submerged in water because of the ultraviolet rays in the sunshine. The rays have been traced down 4,000 feet but they are not numerous. Enough of them, however, pierce through 300 feet of water to make the paint effective at that depth.

The ultraviolet rays are everywhere there is natural light. Sunshine isn't necessary. They are in evidence before sun up or after sun set and even on a cloudy day.

Fishing flies, tied with floss with the same fire-like colors, were introduced last fall and some sensational catches were reported.

It took the chemists almost a year to transfer the glowing qualities from the fabric to the lacquer.

What makes the fabric colors glow still is a trade secret after having been a government secret throughout much of the year. The fabric was developed when the government demanded that signal flags on airplane carriers always have the same color intensity in natural light. Later on the cloth was used for shoulder patches for troops in the Aleutians.

Taft Calls For Cut In Federal Spending

New Taxes Not Needed, Says GOP Senator

By JACK BELL

Washington, April 1 (AP)—Senator Taft (R-Ohio) offered his proposed $3,000,000,000 slash in federal spending today as the answer to President Truman's argument that a federal deficit would hurt more than a tax boost.

Taft, who heads the Senate GOP Policy committee, commented:

"If we can cut 10 per cent out of most of these appropriation bills that are coming along we can save $3,000,000,000 and have a comfortable surplus of more than $2,000,000,000 to apply on the debt."

Mr. Truman has predicted that the government will run $873,000,000 in the red in the year beginning next July 1, unless taxes are increased. His warning that such a deficit would do more damage than higher taxes came at his news conference yesterday.

But Taft contended this would be only a "book deficit." To put on new taxes in a time of falling prices would do more harm than good, the Ohioan added.

Senator Russell (D-Ga.) has joined with Taft in a proposal to cut 10 per cent off the proposed cash outlays for the European recovery program—a move that Senator Lucas of Illinois, the Democratic leader, said he has the votes to beat.

Outlook Uncertain For Chinese Peace

Negotiations With Reds To Be Tough Task

By SEYMOUR TOPPING

Nanking, April 1 (AP)—The Chinese government's peace delegation landed in red Peiping this afternoon.

The Communists immediately clamped a ban on the publication of all news concerning the activities of the Nationalist negotiators.

The delegation, feeling as if it was "standing on the edge of a bottomless gulf," took off from Nanking after consulting with Acting President Li Tsung-jen and leaders of the Kuomintang (government) party.

Behind them they left 2,000 demonstrating students who denounced their mission as a "gesture to fool the people" and shouted about "American imperialism" in China.

The delegation of six issued a statement at the air port which was a mixture of hope and fear.

"We deeply realize the heavy responsibility upon us," it said, "and we feel that we are now standing on the edge of a bottomless gulf or walking on thin ice."

No Nationalist Chinese newsman or foreign correspondent will be allowed to cover the conferences, which might well settle China's political fate for generations.

The dominant Communists are expected to impose harsh terms which would give them control of all China.

Newfoundland Now Canadian Province

Ottawa, Ontario, April 1 (AP)—Newfoundland today joined Canada as a 10th province.

Baby Tornado Hits Near Uniontown, Pa.

Three Persons Injured; Loss Around $200,000

Uniontown, Pa., April 1 (AP)—A baby tornado that injured three persons as it swept across the Uniontown Country club and six farms left damage unofficially estimated today at from $150,000 to $200,000.

The sudden twister partially demolished the Country club building and cut a 750-yard swath across nearby farms before disappearing in the Blue Ridge Mountains yesterday.

Two of those injured were treated at Uniontown hospital. Leo Williams, 35, of Uniontown, sustained back injuries, while Virginia Lint, five, of nearby Balsinger, was treated for bruises suffered when the wind hurled her against a barn.

Edwin Smell, a dairy farmer, was slightly hurt when his barn was overturned by the twister.

Smell estimated damage to his barn, fruit orchards and an open-air movie screen he operates at $40,000. Attorney Robert C. Hagan, president of the Uniontown Country club estimated damage there at $100,000.

Several other houses were damaged also. A two-car garage near Hopwood was tossed into the air with wreckage strewn across highway 40.

Esther Plaski, 18, of Ronco, reported the storm's biggest thrill. She was taking a bath on the second floor of the country clubhouse when the wind scored a direct hit.

"I heard a roar," she said, "and the next thing I knew three sides of the room had disappeared."

Coal Mine Workers Take Holiday Today

About 400,000 Idle For John Mitchell Day

Pittsburgh, April 1 (AP)—John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers are taking today off to pay homage to one of their early leaders.

April 1 is known in the coal fields as John Mitchell day and is observed under terms of their contract annually as a holiday to mark the start of the eight-hour day in the coal industry.

In recent years Lewis has shared the honors, with some miners calling April 1 Lewis-Mitchell day.

In all, about 400,000 soft coal miners are idle today—less than a week after the end of their 14-day shutdown. Lewis ordered the stoppage from March 14 to March 28 in memory of killed and injured miners and to protest the appointment of Dr. John Boyd as director of the U. S. Bureau of Mines.

Throughout the soft coal fields of western Pennsylvania, Kentucky, West Virginia and Ohio parades and [illegible] were scheduled to mark Mitchell day, which commemorates the time 51 years ago when the union first was able to crack operators' united opposition to the eight-hour day.

The UMW now is seeking a six-hour day and a 30-hour week.

White House Drops Easter Egg-Rolling

Washington, April 1 (AP)—The once-traditional White House Easter egg roll has been called off again for the eighth consecutive time.

It was first discontinued during the war. Repair work being done on the executive mansion precludes its revival this year, officials said.

Seven Bodies Found In Farm Pond After C-47 Plane Wreck

Edgar Springs, Mo., April 1 (AP)—The air force has identified four of seven men aboard a C-47 plane which crashed into a farm pond near here.

Seven bodies were taken from the wreckage yesterday after the pond was drained. The twin-engined plane crashed during a rainstorm Wednesday night.

The air force said four men from the 28th Air Base Headquarters Squadron were among those aboard—Capt. Charles W. Richardson, jr., Harrisburg, Pa.; 1st Lt. David A. Kenny, Omaha, Neb.; Sgt. Walter J. Grebowski Route 4, St. Paul, Minn., and a Pvt. Sproat, Salem, Ohio.

CRUSHED UNDER BUS

French Merci Train Boxcar Sidetracked

Gifts Stalled At Lansing For Nearly 2 Months

Lansing, April 1 (AP)—A meeting will be held here next week in another attempt to put a little grease on the wheels of the French "Merci" train boxcar, forsaken on a siding for nearly two months now.

The gayly decorated 40 et 8 box car, ladened with gifts for the people of Michigan, has been sidetracked here ever since it was given a royal official welcome to Michigan last Feb. 12.

The box car was sent as a "thank you" from the people of France for food gifts from the people of Michigan. Plans to have it tour the principal cities of the state have bogged down after a series of meetings to try and decide who would do what.

Mayor George Welsh of Grand Rapids, head of the Michigan welcoming committee, said the next move was up to the governor's office. The governor's office now has appointed representatives of four state agencies to try and decide what to do with the gift horse.

Latest proposal is for the car to be turned over to the Michigan historical society. The box car and its contents would be maintained by the society as the property of the people of Michigan.

Reuther Now Rides In $12,000 Packard

Detroit, April 1 (AP) — Walter Reuther is now riding in a $12,000 armored car.

CIO United Auto Workers union officials said they prevailed upon him to accept the bullet-proof car, a black (Packard) sedan, over his "vigorous" objections.

The redhaired union president was critically wounded a year ago this month in an assassination attempt. The mysterious attack is still unsolved.

Ten Tacoosh Smelt Start Big Spawning Run Of '49

Just as the first robin does not make a spring, so ten silvery smelt dipped from the rushing waters of the Tacoosh near Rapid River do not make a spawning run.

Yet it is sufficient indication of what is to come that smelt dippers of Delta county will be out each night for the next two or three weeks to make sure they do not miss that first rush of smelt up local streams and rivers. The Tacoosh yield of ten smelt was made Wednesday night, but last night all signs failed and dippers went home cold and fishless.

Officers at conservation department headquarters in Escanaba today reported the check of smelt streams last night revealed no smelt being dipped, although a score or more of men were trying the Tacoosh, Days, Escanaba, Ford and other rivers.

Conservation officers pointed out that all persons over the age of 17 dipping smelt must first obtain a fishing license.

A resident fishing license costs $1.50 and is good for the calendar year 1949. Husbands may obtain a license identification for their wives without additional charge.

This license permits taking in season all fish except brook, brown and rainbow trout.

Non-resident fishermen can obtain an annual fishing license for $3. Both resident and non-resident fishermen must have a $1 trout stamp to take brook, brown and rainbow trout.

Smelt dipping is permitted at the mouth of all streams in Delta county, except Whitefish river which is closed to all fishing from the mouth of Chipney Creek on down during the period from March 16 to May 20, inclusive. This special order was for the purpose of protecting walleyed pike during their spring spawning run up that river.

CARNEY HOME BEING RAZED

Was Symbol Of Lumber Era In Marinette

Marinette, Wis.—A symbol of an era of elegance in Marinette is being demolished as workmen raze the three story, red brick home on Riverside avenue which once housed the family of Frederick Carney, one of the so-called lumber barons.

In 1914 the mansion was purchased from Carney's widow by C. J. Lauerman, vice president of the Lauerman Brothers company, who occupied it until seven years ago.

The building, believed to be more than 60 years old, was once a favorite gathering place and the scene of many elaborate parties. Containing 18 rooms, the structure housed a ballroom on the third floor and several marble fireplaces.

Deer once roamed in a wildlife sanctuary which flanked both sides of the home. A large fish pond, requiring three carloads of cement, once decorated the rear yard. A stable at the rear of the estate housed a fashionable tally-ho and bob-tailed horses. Old time residents of Marinette still remember the flurry and excitement caused by the tally-ho when it was driven through town drawn by four well groomed horses.

Lavish use of lumber once employed by builders of this area is revealed as wreckers strip walls away from the framework. Many long boards 18 and 22 inches wide have been found. Joseph Slawik of Marinette, general contractor, is in charge of the demolition and expects the building to be leveled within six weeks.

Dr. Jones Elected Blesch Fund Head

Menominee, Mich.—Dr. William S. Jones of Menominee was elected president of the board of trustees of Blesch Fund, Inc., at an organization meeting yesterday at 4 p. m. in the First National Bank. Other officers elected were:

Sup. Clement Ritter of Nadeau township, vice president, and Roland M. Odgers of Menominee, secretary. Dr. Jones represents the Menominee County Medical Society; Ritter, the county government and Odgers the Blesch estate.

At the same time the three trustees increased membership of the board of trustees to five by election of Dr. John R. Heidenreich of Daggett and George Barstow, attorney for the Blesch estate. The board will meet once a month and each member will receive $20 for attendance at each meeting. The next meeting will be on April 13 at 2:30 p. m.

WAGES, PRICES TO BE STUDIED

Are Linked To Living Cost Statistics

By CLARKE BEACH

Washington, (AP)—Will spring bring another round of wage increases? Here are some of the questions that will have to be decided at the conference tables—

Workers' representatives will ask:

Have raises up to now met the raise in the cost of the living? Have they been enough to provide the worker with his share of the growing output per man per hour made possible through technological and other advances?

Employers will ask:

Is business good enough and is the outlook favorable enough to justify giving wage raises? If the employes forced a raise, would industry have to raise prices, thus adding another turn to the rising spiral of inflation? If prices could not be raised for fear of losing buyers, would employes have to be laid off to keep the business on a profitable basis?

CIO economists, in the latest issue of the CIO News, already have called for wage raises. One big employer already is committed to an increase—General Motors. The contract which the automobile manufacturer made last year with its 270,000 production workers provided for a 3-cent-an-hour raise on May 29, 1949.

This is for increased productivity or, as it is called by some, "the annual improvement factor." The recent cut in wages which GM employes took was an adjustment to the lowered cost of living, another provision of last year's contract. But the productivity raise has nothing to do with the cost of living.

Workers in a large number of smaller industries are getting raises. The Department of Labor reveals this in its monthly report, Current Wage Developments. Of 435 contracts reviewed in the January and February issues, raises were granted in all but 13 cases. But both AFL and CIO textile unions failed to receive wage raises. An arbitrator said business conditions were such that pay raises would be likely to result in lay-offs harmful both to workers and employers.

And the United Shoe Workers (CIO) sought a raise from 70 Massachusetts shoe manufacturers but failed to get it. The Amalgamated Clothing Workers (CIO) asked for no incerase. Increases granted so far are not all "fourth round." It's the fifth raise since the war's end for some industries, only the first or second for others.

All eyes this spring will be on the Consumers' Price Index of the Bureau of Labor Statistics. The index, which is a measure of living costs, has dropped to 170.9 from its all-time peak of 174.5. last August.

Since 1939 the average weekly wage in manufacturing industries has increased from $23.86 to $54.54 as of October 1948. The rise in the wages of bituminous coal miners has been perhaps the most spectacular—from $23.88 a week in 1939 to $76.40 last October. In terms of real wages, however, the workers have not improved their lot nearly so much. The $54.54 which the avearge factory worker was getting in October would buy no more than $31.23 in 1939.

The Labor Department has figured out that the average factory worker, although receiving a raise of 128.1 per cent since 1939, has gained only 30.9 per cent in purchasing power. The bituminous coal miners have increased their purchasing power 83.2 per cent.

But some other kinds of employes have done much worse. Brokerage house employes' real wages went up only 3.6 per cent. The real wages of employes of insurance firms have dropped 14.9 per cent.

The President's Council of Economic Advisers said in its year-end report: "Substantial wage increases are still called for in a number of instances where wages are substandard." but the council added: "Pushing for the highest possible wage advance is dangerous to the economy in a period when that advance necessitates even higher prices."

Scientists Study Freezing Process

Schenectady, N. Y.—Weather scientists here who have already made artificial rain and snow by spreading dry ice in supercooled clouds are conducting experiments at the General Electric laboratories in an effort to learn more about how and why materials freeze.

They have already "supercooled" water 71 degrees below the ordinary freezing point without its turning into ice, and they have super-cooled mercury 72 degrees below its freezing point; tin, 198 degrees; and gallium, 125 degrees.

Scientists have long known that water can be cooled far below the ordinary freezing point and still remain a liquid. More than proper temperature and pressure are required for freezing. There must be particles present about which material freezes. These are the so-called nuclei. The General Electric scientists who made artificial snow by scattering dry ice particles from airplanes into supercooled clouds supplied the necessary nuclei in the tiny particles of the solid carbon dioxide.

A PROCLAMATION

CANCER CONTROL MONTH

Whereas the President of the United States and the Governor of the State of MICHIGAN have proclaimed the month of April, CANCER CONTROL MONTH, and

Whereas Cancer continues to be one of the major threats to the health and welfare of the citizens of Michigan, and the rate of cancer deaths continues to rise in this state;

Whereas modern science has been mobilized against this ancient disease in the Nation's finest laboratories under the guidance of many of the foremost medical minds of the country, and we have been able to provide an increasing array of weapons to combat cancer and have demonstrated great improvement in the techniques of diagnosis and treatment of cancer;

Whereas the battle can only be won by an informed public willing to give of its time and energy in this cause to the American Cancer Society's program of research, education and service;

Therefore, I, Robert E. LeMire Mayor of the City of Escanaba, Michigan, do hereby proclaim the month of April 1949, as CANCER CONTROL MONTH, and I ask that the people of Escanaba lend their full support to the great work now being done by the American Cancer Society to defeat this disease.

Health Department Reports On Spread Of Scarlet Fever

Lansing, (AP)—Scarlet fever is spreading in Michigan at three times the normal rate, says Dr. F. S. Leeder, director of the State Health Department Disease Control Division.

He reported that the disease is increasing at the rate of 450 cases a week.

Dr. Leeder urged that if children feel unwell, develop cold-like symptoms, vomiting or fever, they should be put to bed and a physician called, especially if the child has been exposed to scarlet fever or lives in a community where the disease is prevalent.

"Penicillin and sulfonamides," he said, "have taken the danger out of scarlet fever, but untreated cases can result in complications, such as ear trouble, infected glands, heart and kidney disorders."

Dr. Leeder emphasized that every case of scarlet fever, "no matter how slight," should be treated by a physician.

Extension Leaders Plan 1950 Program At Meeting Here

Ten representatives of Delta County Home Economics groups met yesterday afternoon in the council chambers in Escanaba with Mrs. Rachel Markwell, of Michigan State college, to plan the 1950 extension program.

The group studied cost of living figures presented by the Extension leader, an analysis of prices and future trends, farm prices, home improvements, legislation and world trade.

They also discussed Michigan population figures and changes in the past several years. They noted that the population of Michigan has increased by 1-6 over 1940, due primarily to a higher birth rate. Displaced persons, and lengthening of the span of life were also listed as contributing to the increase.

Health, housing and utilities also came up for pertinent discussion. The women were told that one of every six persons in the United States is afflicted with a chronic disease.

Joseph Heirman, Delta County agricultural agent, made tentative plans with the groups for a county-wide achievement day program in May.

He reported to them that 93 per cent of Delta County homes are electrified and that in rural homes, outside villages and other community units, there are 159 phones for 1500 persons. The telephone project of the Delta County Planning Commission was reviewed by Heirman.

Following general discussions of the economic patterns, the women were sub-divided into two groups to discuss clothing, foods, parent teacher associations, home furnishings and home management and consumer education.

Blanks listing special subjects on which help is desired were distributed to the women, and will be used by the Home Extension office in evaluating the coming program.

Attending the meeting yesterday were Mrs. Helen Holmberg and Mrs. Wilfred Bezner of Gladstone, Mrs. Earl Kaiser and Mrs. Richard Lundquist of Ensign, Mrs. John Krause and Mrs. Warren Scarr of Bark River, Mrs. George Chaillier and Mrs. Felix Johnson of Danforth, Mrs. Anna Harrod of Escanaba and Mrs. William Olson of Bay View.

Home Extension clubs are organized in Delta County at Fayette, Garden, Kates Bay, Ensign, Rapid River, Gladstone, Bay View, Cornell, Escanaba, Danforth, Bark River and Bark River, Sunnyside area. A total of 188 persons are members of the 12 clubs. The Extension has been active in Delta County periodically for over 20 years.

Some facts presented by Mrs. Markwell to the group are:

Prices are still high, but quality has improved. No sharp drop in prices is expected because of high government spending, social security benefits and other social insurance, large private savings accounts, high wages, and price supports for farm produce.

A decrease of three per cent or more in the cost of living is evident, chiefly in food prices.

Farm prices will hold good this year though not at the 1948 peak. More people to feed and higher incomes for most families contribute to a good farm price.

Purchasing of material or articles for home improvement is advisable now, if cash is available for full payment.

When Congress or the state legislature makes appropriations, the money will come either from taxes or borrowing. If from taxes, prices will go down, and if through loans, prices will go up.

The European Recovery program is the greatest international trade operation in history. Through sale of farm products and other articles for export, every home is connected with world trade.

Another Bad Break For Steam Plant

THE city's steam plant project has sustained just about every bad break that could possibly be conceived. The latest bit of bad news is the discovery that the generator purchased some time ago from a brokerage firm on the west coast is defective and will require substantial repairs.

The city justifiably feels that it was sorely rooked on the turbine - generator deal. The city was assured by its firm of consulting engineers, Laramore and Douglas, that the unit was in good condition. The engineering firm, in turn, got its information from a representative of the Worthington company, original manufacturers of the unit. On the strength of these recommendations, the city made the purchase at a price of $8,500 and since has added about $2,000 in transportation costs, inspection fees, labor, etc. The turbine is totally worthless, except for scrap salvage; the generator will require an expenditure of perhaps $7,000 to put it in serviceable condition.

The council's attitude now is "wait and see." No further expenditures will be planned for the steam project in the year ahead until more accurate figures can be compiled regarding actual operating experiences. If the steam plant can reach a point within the next year to indicate that the turbine-generator is all that is required to put the plant on a self-paying basis, the council will probably authorize the addition of the electric generating unit.

In view of the circumstances, the decision is a reasonable one. The unfavorable feature is that it accelerates doubt in the continuance of the steam project and this factor will probably discourage additional customers needed to boost revenue and increase efficiency of the plant.

Plan Campaign On Radio Noise

AN intensive campaign to eliminate causes of radio disturbances will get under way next week by the city electrical department. Radio fans—and that includes just about every citizen of the community—will agree that such a drive is needed. There has been a steady increase in radio interference here in recent months.

The campaign cannot succeed, however, without wholehearted cooperation of the general public. Most of the noises should not have to be tracked down by city electricians. A householder with an unfiltered vacuum cleaner or other motor that buzzes a steady drone into a radio receiver usually knows that his instrument is causing such a disturbance. In many cases he does nothing about it unless a complaint is traced to his home.

That kind of cooperation will never eliminate the cause of radio squawking in Escanaba. If every person who knows that his appliances are disturbing radio reception would install filters on the instruments, perhaps 75% of more of the trouble would be licked. The remaining causes could then be run down by the city crews.

Good radio reception is desired by everyone. The housewife who turns off her radio so that she can run the vacuum cleaner that creates radio noises is being unfair to her neighbors, although she may not realize it.

Conference Over, But Problems Are Unsolved

WELL, the Cultural and Scientific Conference for World Peace has been and gone. So has the rival conference of Americans for Intellectual Freedom. And the prospects for a friendly and stable world are about what they were before.

The first group, made up of Communists, pro - Communists and rather dreamy-sounding theoreticians, got together and reconciled themselves that their ideas were correct. The second group, newly formed for the occasions, got together and reconvinced themselves that the cultural and scientific conference was a Communist-inspired vehicle for Soviet propaganda.

Both organizations wanted peace. The one would settle for peace at Russia's price. The other rejected the idea of "peace at any price."

Some of the public, particularly some citizens of New York City, got very excited over all the goings-on. Tempers shortened and blood pressures rose. Rightist liberals made angry accusations against leftist liberals, and vice versa. Pickets marched, shouted, sang and prayed. A few harmless punches were thrown. But in the main things went off reasonably well.

The conference of the cultured and the scientific heard quiet and decorous defenses of the Communist Party line. It's sponsors even permitted Norman Cousins, editor of the cultural but non-scientific Saturday Review of Literature, to tell the visiting foreigners that neither Wall Street nor the Communists are running this country, and that furthermore the country does not like the Communists very much.

It is doubtful that many minds were changed, in or out of the conferences. The issues have been before the public so long that almost everyone must have made up his mind by now. The leftist discussions certainly did not advance the cause of world peace. Any concrete results they may have had were probably negative.

The visiting Russians, having their first peek outside the iron curtain, may have gotten the idea from the pickets' shouts and slogans that the American people are as mad at the Russian people as they are at the Russian government. Possibly some of the pickets made the same mistake.

When it was all over, the Soviet delegation had neither bombed the Waldorf-Astoria nor bolshevized the country. Communism was neither more or less of a menace to America than it had been. The iron curtain was still down. American restrictions on visiting Communists were still up. And the problem of world peace remained where it had been all along—in the laps of the governments in Washington and Moscow.

The problem promises to remain there until Stalin & Co., though still convinced their way is best, decide that it is expedient to limit the benefits of their virtue and knowledge to the territories they now control. Until that happens it seems, unfortunately, that there isn't much the ordinary citizen can do to advance peace, whether he is non-Communist or Communist, well-intentioned or ill-intentioned, the beneficiary of democracy or the victim of dictatorship.

Alliance Treaty Is Answer To Russia

THE North Atlantic alliance is America's answer to Russia's nullification of the United Nations as a truly effective instrument for world peace.

If the United Nations could accomplish the objectives which its creators had envisioned for the world organization, there would be no need for a defensive alliance of nations to combat Communistic encroachments.

The UN has not fulfilled its purposes simply because Soviet Russia and the Communist bloc has continually and systematically rendered the world organization impotent. The persistent use of the veto power by Russia has blocked the UN security council in almost every effort to settle international disputes. Further, the policy of non-cooperation by the Russian government in its international dealings has created new threats to world peace.

The expansionist designs of Communist Russia is predicated upon armed power and it is in recognition of this that countries imperiled by Russian ambitions are combining their own strength to counteract the Soviet power.

The Atlantic alliance is strictly defensive in its purposes. It simply provides that in the event of an attack upon any signator, all of the other nations in the alliance will regard themselves as also attacked.

SCARECROW

If one is not acquainted with crows he misses some of the finer implications in the dictionary's naive and ingenuous definition: an object, usually suggesting a human figure, set up to frighten crows away from crops—hence, any thing terrifying without danger. Farm families know from experience that "anything terrifying without danger" does not bother Corvus brachyrhynchios to the point that he misses a meal. The big black fellows are a doughty match for homo sapiens and sometimes a man thinks he hears a note of mocking derisiveness in the raucus caucus of their spring group conventions.

There are men who enjoy the planning and construction of a scarecrow. On a stormy April day when rain is persistently scratching against farm shop windows, it is pleasant to work along in the mellow heat thrown by the rusty old stove. Psychologists who have delved into our mental goings-on claim that we subconsciously crave an opportunity to express ourselves creatively. A man who might hesitate to dabble in water colors or pencil sketching enjoys building a scarecrow. It is a comparatively simple affair to make the body and neck. It is a comparatively simple affair to make the body and neck. Then with a series of arms and legs that can be bolted on at grotesque angles one can assemble a very distinctive piece of original sculpturing.

The most satisfying part of the work is to make several faces in profile. If one is a bit handy at caricaturing it is easy to draw outlines on a board that are recognizable as one's peers and neighbors along the road. The faces can be cut out with a jig saw and a long neck left to bolt onto the body. The creation of half a dozen faces that may be changed at frequent intervals gives passersby something to brighten their shopping trips to town. We are not suggesting that scarecrows frighten the birds away. A person who can remember when April meant sulphur and molasses has no illusions about crows. But that has little to do with the countryman's pleasure in an original statue in his cornfield. He likes to build a scarecrow as an outlet for his imagination and it furnishes a convenient post for a black sentinel while its mates are pulling up the corn.—By Haydn Pearson.

SATURDAY HODGEPODGE
Mostly About Words

Mt. Vernon: Will you tell us about the propriety of answering "thank you" with "you're welcome" as we hear so often in these days, even among literate people.—O. G.

A. "You're welcome" is a quite proper idiom that has been with us for a very long time. From the American College Dictionary (Random House): "welcome: free to enjoy courtesies, etc., without being under obligation (used in conventional response to thanks), as: you are quite welcome."

Pittsburgh: The word canape has been a source of controversy. Please give the most acceptable pronunciation.—Mrs. G. H.

A. At the present time the word canape is in a state of evolution. The older dictionaries give the word the French pronunciation: ka-na-PAY. The newer dictionaries show: KAN-uh-pay; or: kan-uh-PAY. My guess is that eventually the pronunciation KAN-uh-pay will be accepted as Standard American. KAN-uh-pee, too, occurs very frequently in American speech. Right now it's more or less a tossup.

San Gabriel: Colby, make people stop saying that they're KUMF-tuh-b'l. —G. W. M.

A. People, stop saying KUMF-tuh-b'l! The American College Dictionary lists KUMF-tuh-b'l as first choice; but it has a slovenly sound, and I should avoid it. Better say: Kum-fer-tuh-b'l.

Arcadio: I have a friend who took an extension course at the university recently. She now says, "I have ate all my food; I have ate so much." It has me wondering.—J. B.

A. Take her gently by the hand and lead her to the nearest English grammar. Then point out to her that the past particle of eat is eaten—I have eaten all my food.

No Rent Control To Affect South

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Washington.—On the ancient principle that half a loaf is better than none, the White House is inclined to accept gratefully the rent-control bill finally agreed to by congress. The belief is that it can be administered in such a way that the majority of tenants in the big cities will be protected while at the same time small landlords will have their wrongs righted.

Childs

This calls for something like the judgment of Solomon. Officials immediately responsible for the administration of rent control are not so optimistic.

One reason the White House is willing to accept a renewal law which will mean some rent increases is the extraordinary volume of mail from individuals setting forth facts to show they have suffered real injustice. Elderly couples and widows who have put their whole savings into one or two rental properties could show in dollars and cents the squeeze they have been under.

A letter from a widow in New Jersey is typical. She has a little insurance money and one rental property as her only source of income. "When rent control went into effect," she writes, "I was paying $48 in taxes and $10 for a ton of coal and my paint bill that year was $187."

WANTS TO GET ALONG

In 1948 the same paint job cost $310. Taxes were $90 and coal cost $17.50 a ton. While all expenses zoomed upward, rent stayed the same. Such genuine hardship cases, as manifested in thousands of letters, have a lot to do with the White House attitude. But so, too, does the new determination o get along with congress that is now a major White House motivation. From here on out there will be a primary consideration in almost every decision.

Sen. John Sparkman of Alabama and Rep. Brent Spence of Kentucky are given full marks by the White House for shaping a bill not to unpalatable. The highly controversial provision for "reasonable return on reasonable value" was replaced in the measure that came out of the senate-house conference in favor of "fair net operating income." The latest, it is believed, will not be nearly so difficult to administer.

The fact has been duly noted at the White House that the two noisiest opponents of the bill in its final form were Sen. John Bricker of Ohio and Sen. Harry Cain of Washington, both Republicans. Bricker and Cain are considered to be the most frank spokesmen for the real estate lobby.

Under the decontrol provisions the pattern of rent control seems almost certain to undergo a radical change along geographical lines. Southern members of congress insisted on decontrol on a "states' rights" basis. Local communities can take off control with the approval of the governor of the state.

MANY TENANTS DON'T VOTE

In the south, and especially the small-town, rural south, rent control is fairly certain to be abolished. There is no very articulate demand for continued controls in that region. Many tenants south of Mason and Dixon's line do not have a vote.

The contrast in the industrial north is sharp. With serious overcrowding still the rule, no mayor or governor is likely to advocate decontrol. It would be a gesture of political suicide.

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey in New York has shown clearly which way the wind blows in the north. He issued a strong statement saying he would refuse to approve removal of federal controls anywhere in New York state "except upon the clearest proof that controls are neither necessary nor desirable."

Perhaps the south can make an honest case that controls are not nearly so necessary there. With the exception of a few areas, the wartime increase in population was much less in the south than in the northeast and the west.

But while this may be true, the fact of control in the industrial north and no control in the south will set up still another barrier of difference between the regions. One immediate effect should give southerners some pause. Eizable rent increases are likely to bring new wage demands. The tendency will be to pare down that significant advantage the south always has counted on to attract industry—a lower cost of living.

THE SHARPSHOOTER— Escanaba has its own "Annie Oakley" and it is right proud of her. She is Ethel R. Gilmore of the secretarial staff of the State Bank of Escanaba.

Miss Gilmore recently went to Minneapolis for a short course at the Federal Reserve Bank. As a routine after class, members of the group were taken on an inspection tour of the bank's protective equipment and each was permitted to fire two shots from a 38-calibre revolver at the firing range target.

The Escanaba student, who had never had a gun in her hands before—scored two bull's eyes! She was acclaimed the "champion sharpshooter of the class" and returned to Escanaba with a copy of the target in the form of a medal, appropriately inscribed.

EXAMPLE—Down at Stephenson recently, at an Elective Officials Institute of Menominee county, Herb Corey cited the new feeling of unity that is pervading Menominee county as a result of the Stephenson Community School Service Program.

"Last year the townships cooperated in turning over most of their liquor license revenue to hire two officers and supply them with a car," Corey said. "The officers are engaged in enforcement of the liquor laws and in highway traffic patrols."

We told Herb that a similar proposal had been made to the townships in Delta county—and nothing came of it except one committee meeting on the subject. Meanwhile the townships continue to fritter away the liquor license money for other than liquor law enforcement, and face the possibility that the legislature will move to take it away from them. Another indication of the failure of local government to accept its responsibilities.

FOREST FIRES—It is not too early to start talking forest fire prevention, says John Chriske, Escanaba, district supervisor for the conservation department. Long range forecasters say they expect fire hazard will be high this spring and summer.

What is the cause of most fires? You and your fellows, who leave campfires burning, drop lighted matches and cigarettes in the woods, and otherwise fail to take the usual precautions against starting forest fires. Ninety per cent of all fires are man caused!

The cost of fire suppression is high but it pays off in the protection of valuable timber and wildlife resources. That cost could be reduced if people would be careful with fire in the woods. Among the first who will need to take heed this spring are those fishermen who will head for the streams late this month.

HELPING OUT—The conservation department's geological survey is prepared to help you out if you think you have found a fortune in pitchblende—chief source of uranium—in your Upper Peninsula back yard. G. E. Eddy, head of the division, says the possibility of finding pitchblende is "remote," but you might run across some in the western U. P.

Thorite, which may be found in the Upper Peninsula, will react to the Geiger counter but it does not contain uranium, the amateur geologists are advised. The conservation department will help you determine whether you have found valuable pitchblende, or just a hunk of rock, by examining specimens of what you may hope to be radio-active minerals. The only "radio-active" specimens we ever encountered turned out to be interference.

INTEREST GROWS —The enthusiasm for dartball continues to grow in Delta county, as evidenced in the recent county-wide tournament held in Escanaba. The recreation center was too small for the large number of players and the crowd of spectators who attended. Next year it will be staged in the high school gymnasium, says George Grenholm, city recreation director.

Teams came from many sections of the county, and the team to travel farthest to play in the tournament was from Fairbanks township. We saw Herb Watchorn, Fairbanks township treasurer, and Howard Gierke of Fairport, supervisor, among the visitors from the Garden peninsula area.

"We got started playing as a church team," said Howard. "There's more of us who play, off and on, and it looks like we'll be back in the tournament line-up again next year."

The age of the players at the tournament ranged from eleven to 78, indicating the game's appeal to all ages.

PROBLEM—Some friends of a friend of ours are currently concerned over the number of bathrooms they should have in the home they are planning. One bathroom is not enough, said the husband; two bathrooms are extravagance, said the wife.

Our observations lead to the conclusion that one bathroom is sufficient if it is completely equipped with a reading lamp and a rack filled with magazines. The magazines are not necessary, especially in the country, observed a cottage owner, who leaves the door open and watches the birds.

Hollywood, (NEA) — Oliver Hardy is set for another solo comic spot, minus Stan Laurel, in the Bing Crosby picture, "Ridin' High," after he completes "Strange Caravan" with John Wayne. Then there's talk of still another with Charles Coburn. But Ollie insists he and Stan are not splitting up and that they'll soon be a team again.

Wayne tells me he'll never again be caught with his reissues down, without a profit. His recent new hits brought out a flock of old films for which Wayne didn't collect a cent. His new contract with Warner Brothers has a bonus clause for reissues. He says the clause will be in all future contracts he signs.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Washington.—Now that James Forrestal is out as secretary of national defense, the story can be told of one of his last sessions with Truman and the man who was to take his place —Louis Johnson.

Pearson

Though Forrestal had put up a tough fight against the appearance of being ousted from his job, he saw the handwriting on the wall and asked only that there be a gradual change - over from him to his successor. He wanted this to take place May 1, but at a luncheon with the president and Louis Johnson, he bowed to Truman's wish that it be April 1.

Furthermore, Forrestal volunteered to help Johnson in taking over the defense job and immediately placed important secret intelligence at his disposal.

At this luncheon meeting, it was agreed on the date when Johnson's appointment would be announced, and Johnson declared that until that time he was going to leave town.

"I don't want to be accused of leaking this news," he said. "And it's already begun to leak." He looked meaningly at the other two.

"There's been no leak from me," declared Truman.

"May one cross-examine the president of the United States?" asked Johnson.

The president smiled, and Johnson proceeded to do so.

"Didn't you tell General Eisenhower about this?" he asked.

"Oh, yes," admitted Truman, "but he won't tell a soul."

"And did you tell Senator Tydings?" asked Forrestal.

"Yes, I forgot about that," acknowledged the president, "but Tydings won't leak."

"Yeah?" said the new secretary of defense. "Well, it's leaking already. And that is why I'm leaving town."

MICHIGAN SCANDAL

If the justice department ever quits sitting on its hands and takes a real look at the Michigan political contributions, it will uncover some of the juiciest scandals in the U. S. A. Furthermore, it will get to the bottom of the manner in which a lot of political money has been raised in this country.

The justice department has fuddy-duddied round with a semi-investigation, but the U. S. district attorneys in Michigan have been half scared of the big Michigan auto interests, while higher-ups in the justice department have been busy chasing spies and running off in other directions.

Meanwhile, Senator Francis Myers of Pennsylvania, chairman of the senate campaign investigating committee, has had some efficient probers busy in Michigan, and they have dug up evidence of widespread violation of the corrupt practices act. Among other things they have found:

A cashier's check, Feb. 24, 1948, by the Barclay Deyo corporation, a Detroit Ford dealer, for $750 to the Wayne county Republican finance committee.

Also a contribution by the Park Motor Sales company, a Lincoln-Mercury dealer in Detroit, for $750, on Feb. 11, 1948, to the Wayne county Republican committee.

Also $953 to the same committee on March 12, 1948, by the Floyd Rice Sales and Service Co., another Ford dealer in Detroit.

Not only are these contributions by corporations a violation of the corrupt practices act, but senate investigators are interested in ascertaining what connection there was between certain large gifts to the Republican machine and the nonpayment of tales taxes by certain auto dealers. Michigan raised a terrific wad of dough for the G. O. P. What did the Michigan auto people get in return for their money?

TITO WANTS HELP

This may be denied, but Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia has appealed to the United States for American artillery, communications equipment and spare parts for his air force. Tito has told the American embassy in Belgrade he fears a Soviet pincers attack on Yugoslavia from Albania and Bulgaria where the Russians are concentrating military forces. . . The U. S. embassy has passed along Tito's urgent request—with the postscript that it has ironclad evidence that an average of two Russian ships each day have unloaded military equipment at the Albanian port of Durazzo for the past three weeks.

TEMPERAMENTAL MONTY

Field Marshal Montgomery will not remain in command of Allied troops under the North Atlantic defense pact. The French—and some others—don't like him. Also the joint chiefs of staff of the western nations have already signed a secret agreement that the chairmanship of their military staff will be rotated as long as war doesn't threaten. However, as soon as war does threaten, an American will be named to head the combined chiefs in place of Montgomery.

DIMINISHING COMMUNISTS

The American ambassador to Italy, James Dunn, has just sent a confidential cable to the state department reporting that, thanks to the Friendship Train, the Marshall plan, etc., Italian Communist membership has dropped from more than 2,000,000 to less than 1,500,000.

FAR EASTERN TINDERBOX

Secretary of State Acheson has sent secret instructions to all American diplomats in the Far East telling them to be extra careful to avoid any action which might be interpreted as an insult to the yellow race. . . Conditions throughout the Far East are so tense that Acheson fears some isolated incident might touch off a disastrous race riot. . . The tense situation is partly because of Communist propaganda, partly because of western blunders such as the Dutch attack on Indonesia. Communists have been hammering away at the theme that the white men from the west are trying to keep them in a backward state in order to exploit hem. . . Acheson wants American diplomats to expose the Russian propaganda line when they can, but above all to be careful in all behavior.

SCRAP STEEL IS SALVAGED

Metal Recovered From Piles Of Slag

Pueblo, Colo., (AP)—Eugene Untermayer has made a long and successful jump from making fine linen in Bavaria to salvaging iron at Pueblo's steelmills.

The 63 year old man fled Germany with his family in 1940. He left behind one of Bavaria's largest linen plants which he'd owned for 40 years.

He tried selling books in New York City to maintain his wife and two children. But at the suggestion of a third son he trekked westward to Colorado. The son was with U. S. ski troops in training at Camp Hale near Leadville.

Untermayer took a job at Pueblo with a New York metal salvage company. It was trying to recover metal from the slag dumps of the Minnequa steel mills of the Colorado Fuel & Iron Corp. The New York firm abandoned the work because it couldn't make a profit.

Untermayer decided to tackle the job himself. He obtained a contract from the CF&I and took up where other firms had failed. He is directing a big operation now in the recovery of the metal. The project involves the eventual working over of about six miles of dumps which are mountains of blast furnace slag.

Powder charges blast loose the material and four bulldozers push it aside in swaths while workmen pick over the dislodged scrap. Most of the recovered metal is in small pieces but some recoveries weigh a half-ton. Trucks haul the accumulations to the steel mills where they are used with other scrap in the open hearth furnaces in making steel.

Untermayer speaks five languages and is an etymologist—an expert in the derivation of words. He is also a metallurgist.

America is the land of opportunity, he says. "Any man can learn to do anything."

Fish Production Up in February

Commercial fish production of 690,000 pounds in February, taken mainly through the ice on Michigan waters of Great bay, more than doubles the January catch, the conservation department reported today.

Fishermen's nets hauled in an above-normal 106,000 pounds of white fish and 265,000 pounds of smelt, the best February catch since 1946. The take of yellow pike, 55,000 pounds, while below January's near record catch of 110,000 was still above average. Lake trout production of 12,400 pounds was the lowest February take in four years. Trout are believed to be the principal victims of the parasitic sea lamprey.

Last year's total haul of all species by Michigan fishermen operating in the Great Lakes, including herring, chubs, carp, yellow perch, and suckers, was in excess of 29,500,000 pounds and was the best year since 1941.

"Rented the first day" said Smith.

Several New Laws Signed by Governor

Lansing, (AP) — Legislation broadening the homestead tax exemption was signed into law by Governor Williams Wednesday. It extends a homestead to all contiguous unoccupied land owned by the same person.

The governor also signed legislation:

Permitting any corporation, with approval of 51 per cent of its stockholders, to build, buy or rent dwellings for its employes subject to certain restrictions.

Permitting townships immediately adjacent to Detroit to establish their own ordinances regulating dogs.

Increasing circuit court testimony transcript fees from 10 cents per page to 15 cents.

Permitting the township board to fix the salaries of township officers prior to the election of a new board. Under the old law the voters fixed the salaries at the bi-annual township meeting and if they failed to do so the officers set their own.

An appropriation of $150,000 to plan and construct additional facilities at Camp Grayling was approved by the governor.

Also signed was a bill eliminating the $1,500 a year salary which the state superintendent of public instruction has been receiving as a member of the administrative board. This results from the salary increase granted the official by the last legislature.

Kaiser-Frazer invades new price field!

Our policy on prices

"It has always been our goal to put a bigger, better automobile within reach of more people. To that end, we have bought the huge factory at Willow Run, and have a great engine plant in Detroit. In Cleveland, we have acquired the world's largest blast furnace for the making of steel. Our engineering-production team and our vast dealer organization have worked overtime to reduce manufacturing and distribution costs. In line with the settled policy of our Corporation, we are giving substantial savings to the public in the form of greatly reduced prices... even sooner than we expected. Now, almost any American family can own a really big, fine car!"

Kaiser-Frazer Corporation
HENRY J. KAISER Chairman JOSEPH W. FRAZER Vice-Chairman

Happy days are here again! Today you can get a big, big 1949 Kaiser Special for only $1,995*... a saving to you of over $333.00!

So, now you can buy the big car you've always wanted... at virtually 'little car' prices and at 'little car' economy of operation! Think of what this means to you and your family in terms of riding comfort, driving ease and prestige!

Go choose your Kaiser or Frazer today. Your nearest Kaiser-Frazer Dealer can probably give you immediate delivery. Fair-and-square trade-in allowances... but you do not have to have a car to trade to get the benefits of Kaiser-Frazer price revisions!

So, enjoy the comfort, luxury and safety of a new, 1949 Kaiser ... the lowest-priced big car in the world!

Look what these new prices save you!

Au Sable Point Lighthouse Opens For Lake Season

Captain Murray of the U. S. C. G. station of Grand Marais drove John Balma, Dave Barkley and A. Silver and their necessary supplies as far as Camp 33.

From Camp 33 the crew had approximately a ten mile overland snow shoe hike with packs to the light. They encountered difficult going and reached the light about 10 Saturday night. They were unable to pack all their supplies in one trip and had to make a return trip for the balance of bedding etc., which they had been forced to leave at camp.

Au Sable light was blinking Sunday evening for the first time since navigation closed last fall.

Because the road to the light is not open as yet the families of the men stationed at Au Sable light will remain in town for some time.

Mrs. Ida Olli returned to her home here Saturday following a long visit with relatives in Flint.

Family Night Supper

The supper menu included: meat loaf, mashed potatoes, gravy, peas, pickles, rolls and cake.

Following the supper, Rev. Brody showed movies of both Niagara and Tahquamenon Falls.

The supper and movie were succeeded by the regular Sunday night church service.

Everyone enjoyed the supper, and especially the women, since several of the men even prepared their own meat loaves, cake etc.

The next family night supper will be held the last Sunday in April.

Ironwood Woman Heads Federation Of Women's Clubs

Detroit, April 1 (AP)—Mrs. Joseph Kangery of Ironwood today was selected new president of the Michigan State Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Kangery, who has served as first vice-president of the club, succeeds Mrs. Arthur William Bruce of Traverse City.

Other officers picked by delegates to the Federation's convention here are Mrs. William O. Merrill, Bloomfield Hills, first vice-president; Mrs. John J. Kistler, Grand Haven, second vice-president; Miss Helen Harris, Muskegon Heights, recording secretary; and Mrs. Cleo E. Walker, Sturgis, financial secretary.

District presidents chosen were Mrs. Robert L. Crary, Jackson, southeastern district; Mrs. Howard Abbott, Reading, southwestern; Mrs. A. R. Schlichter, Marlette, East Central; Mrs. E. C. Beck, Mt. Pleasant, northeastern; Mrs. Frances Furlong, Newberry, Upper Peninsula; Mrs. M. Van Gleason, Traverse City, northwestern; and Mrs. Arthur German, Lyons, west central. Both Mrs. Schlichter and Mrs. Beck are held over.

"Facing a Challenge"

At a banquet last night Mrs. Bruce, retiring president, told the delegates that "America is facing a challenge."

This challenge, she said, is "aimed at its ability to take and honorably hold its place in world affairs."

"Our General Federation of Women's Clubs," she declared, "has made very definite contributions to the enrichment of life through better adjustments of human relations.

"If we are to prove adequate for our day, in meeting the challenge of the hour, it will involve readaptation, shifts of emphasis, daring visions and earnest endeavor."

Today's Recipes

A group of recipes for salad dressing, all favorites from her collection, is given readers today by Miss Adrienne Tousignant of 909 Third avenue south.

Russian Dressing

One-third cup sugar, one-third cup catsup, one half teaspoon salt, one cup mineral oil. Pour in one-fourth cup vinegar, one teaspoon celery seed, one teaspoon grated onion, or onion salt. This dressing is not fattening.

Boiled Salad Dressing

Butter size of an egg. When melted add one tablespoon flour, one cup sweet milk. Let come to a boil. Have ready one tablespoon sugar, three eggs, beaten, one teaspoon dry mustard, one cup vinegar. Pour into first mixture. Boil again. Put in mason jar and seal.

Fruit Salad Dressing

Heat juice of pineapple, thicken with corn starch and thin out with sweet cream. This is excellent used with sections of grapefruit on watercress.

Uncooked Salad Dressing

One cup vinegar, three-fourths cup sugar, butter size of an egg, one and one-half tablespoons dry mustard, two eggs, one teaspoon flour. Mix well.

Salad Dressing For Cabbage

For one small cabbage, shredded, one egg, one-half cup sugar, one-half cup vinegar, one teaspoon each dry mustard, salt, one large spoonful butter. Put all except egg on to boil, then pour over beaten egg. Boil again. Pour over cabbage and add one-half cup thick sweet cream. With red cabbage this makes a colorful salad.

Older Careerist Can Use Tricks To Avoid Fatigue

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

The mature career woman who feels "dragged out" by the end of a working day can employ simple tricks to banish the telltale look of fatigue.

When the zero hour arrives, take 10 minutes out to renew makeup —not just a dab of powder on the nose but a complete from-the-skin-out application. A treatment which includes stroking on cleansing cream and patting on an astringent is refreshing to the skin and helps to relax tense facial muscles. The foundation cream and powder kept in an office kit should be of a rosier tint than the one you apply at your dressing table. Brush and comb your hair to restore an every-hair-in-place look of immaculate grooming. The fresher you look, the fresher you will feel.

For another pick-me-up, take a brisk walk—even if it's only around your office. A walk taken outside, of course, is better. Even a slight amount of exercise taken in the fresh air will stir up circulation and help to release tensions.

If you know you must stand or walk a great deal, or if you must go direct from the office to a dinner party, take to the office an extra pair of stockings and shoes for a change of footwear. There's nothing like a change of shoes and stockings to revive feet when they're tired and to give a woman a brighter outlook.

Children Enjoy Puppet Show By Women's Club

Many eager little faces enjoyed the story of Hansel and Gretel, re-enacted in a clever puppet show for the annual childrens' day program of the Manistique Womens' club held Tuesday afternoon at Lakeside school. The puppets, made and dressed by club members, were authentic replicas of the story book characters. A miniature stage with woodland setting and special music and lighting effects provided a fitting atmosphere for the story. Those who manipulated the puppets and the voices of the various characters were:

Mrs. Carl Makel—Hansel
Mrs. William Moreau—Gretel
Mrs. C. F. Anderson—their father
Mrs. William Norton—the stepmother and the witch.

The puppets were made by Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. William Moreau, Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Makel. Mrs. Norton, who was in charge of the stage and settings was assisted by T. Thompson, Barney Johnson, and But Malloy. The puppets were dressed by Mrs. Robert Schmeling and Mrs. Sidney Bower.

A brief business meeting was held before the puppet performance. A donation of $5 was authorized for the Easter Seal sale. The annual report of the international relations committee was presented by Mrs. Leon Nicholson, chairman of the committeel

Announcement of the annual luncheon, to be held Tuesday, April 5th, at Blaney, was made by Mrs. Kenneth White, chairman.

Tea was served at the close of the program from an attractively decorated table, and the children were served ice cream cones in the kindergarten room. Hostesses were Mrs. Thor Reque, chairman, Mrs. Robert Schmeling, Mrs. Franklin Burgess, Mrs. Alvin Nelson, Mrs. Carl Makel, Mrs. George Stephens, Mrs. A. Dybevik, Mrs. O. Dybevik, Mrs. William Ducheney, and Mrs. Ferdinand Gorsche.

A Message To Labor

The laboring man is well aware of what happened under the Republican dominated 80th Congress. The advent of the Taft-Hartley Slave Labor Law, the Repeal of Price Controls, runaway inflation, inadequate housing measures, sky-high prices that wiped out wage increases sooner than they were achieved, and all of the rest of the unsatisfactory legislation enacted that perceptibly lowered their living standards.

We are also aware of the labor-shackling Bonine-Tripp Act of our own State of Michigan and the inadequacy of the Republican amended Unemployment Compensation Act whereby a worker is disqualified from his benefits even though he may be locked out of his job at the discretion of his employer.

We do not want to see the gains made under the Democratic party wiped out and a return to the black days of the early thirties when depression and hunger ruled the country and working people everywhere suffered.

Today we have a Democratic Governor in the State with a Republican controlled Legislature, resulting in a practically impossible situation so far as the enactment of progressive legislation is concerned. We cannot hope to better our standard of living or strengthen the cause of labor under such conditions.

We urge all labor, both organized and unorganized, to consider these well known facts and to give their mandate at the polls on Monday, April 4th.

JOSLIN ASKS FOR NEW TRIAL

Prosecution Files Answer To Prisoner's Motion

More than forty pages of typewritten matter are contained in the motion for a new trial for Benjamin A. Joslin, serving time for armed robbery in the state prison at Jackson.

The motion alleges "all and sundry types of errors" in the handling of the case. The attorney representing the youth is not mentioned in the brief.

Prosecuting Attorney William Sheahan announces that an answer to the motion has been filed and it will be argued in the coming term of circuit court which convenes April 11.

Joslin, who was 16 years old at the time of his arrest on March 27, 1946, had a previous record and when confronted with the robbery and assault upon Mrs. Katherine Beal, made a confession written by himself.

The robbery was committed when Mrs. Beal had picked up Ben and his brother and Ben, at the point of a home made gun, is alleged to have demanded Mrs. Beal's wallet.

Michigan State Coach Addresses Elks Banquet

More than two hundred Manistique Elks and invited guests feasted and enjoyed special entertainment at the semi-annual bowling banquet held at the temple Wednesday evening.

The primary purpose of the gathering was the banquet in which members of bowling teams that were in the lower score brackets served those who were on teams wth higher scores. The occasion was also used to honor members of Manistique high school football and basketball teams, the Cooks high school basketball team, and the local boxing team, as well as their coaches and trainers.

Baked whitefish, served with appropriate fixings and trimmings was served.

Also helping to make the occasion memorable was the presence and talk by Forrest Evashevski, Michigan State coach, who in his talk admonished the high school boys present never to be mediocre.

His team, he said, started the season with prospects that were definitely second rate, but inspired by that zeal to make the utmost of their opportunities, the players made Michigan State one of the football sensations of the 1948 season. It was this grim determination not to be mediocre that enabled them to win all but two games—one to the University of Michigan and the other to Notre Dame.

Moving pictures presenting the highlights of the Michigan-Michgan State game concluded the evening's entertainment.

36 Eskymo Trackmen Prepare For Six-Meet Outdoor Season

Mack Says A's Need Hitting Power; They Beat Newark, 20-5

Haines City, Fla., April 1 (AP)—Connie Mack thinks his Philadelphia Athletics would have "a great chance" for the pennant this year if only the hitting were a little better.

"If our fellows could only hit a little more it would mean all the difference," the 85-year old manager sighed yesterday before his club went against Newark.

The A's responded by drubbing Newark 20 to 5.

Training Briefs

St. Petersburg, Fla., April 1 (AP)—The Boston Red Sox invaded the New York Yankee camp today, setting the stage for the first showdown of the year between Ted Williams and Joe DiMaggio.

The Yankee Clipper, still nursing an ailing heel, was due in the New York starting lineup for only the second time this spring. He rested yesterday after playing six innings Wednesday, when beat the Boston Braves, 9-7.

Houston, Tex., April 1 (AP)—Jackie Robinson, the Brooklyn Dodgers' biggest box office attraction on the spring tour, is giving the fans their money's worth.

The agile Negro second baseman has never looked better. His batting average is tops on the club and he has been improving it almost daily. In yesterday's 8-1 victory over San Antonio he collected a double and two singles in five trips to the plate.

Tampa, Fla., April 1 (AP)—Ray Lamanno, Cincinnati's regular catcher last year, was the topic of "trade conversation" in the Redleg camp today. Four catchers, one more than Manager Bucky Walters intends to carry, remain on the roster and Bucky has indicated he is counting on Ray Mueller and Dixie Howell to do most of the receiving this season.

Tucson, Ariz., April 1 (AP)—A pulled leg muscle suffered by Gene Bearden, star hurler for the Cleveland Indians, became potentially serious today, and the hurler was ordered to bed for several days.

Manager Lou Boudreau said Bearden probably won't be allowed to pitch again for a week or more.

St. Petersburg, Fla., April 1 (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals, beaten in their last two starts, will try again for victory against a National league opponent today. They meet the Boston Braves at Bradenton, Fla. The New York Giants beat the Cards, 4-1, yesterday.

Tucson, Ariz., April 1 (AP)—The Chicago White Sox expected to get their first glimpse of Pitcher Satchel Paige today while concluding their three-day Tucson stand against the Cleveland Indians. Bill Wight and Howie Judson were to share the Sox pitching chores.

San Antonio, Tex., April 1 (AP)—Going into today's sixth game of their 13-set exhibition series with the St. Louis Browns, the Chicago Cubs had a 3 to 2 lead over American league teams.

Thus far, the Cubs have won seven of 12 games against American league competition, but have copped only one in six against National league clubs. They beat the Browns yesterday 7 to 6.

Tiger Rookie Hurt; Asleep At Wheel

Stewart, Miss., April 1 (AP)—Ernie Funk, rookie hurler in the Detroit Tigers farm system, was slightly injured yesterday when his car plunged into a ditch near here.

He apparently dozed at the wheel, State Highway Patrolman Joedy Johnston said.

Johnson said the 19-year-old pitcher was treated by a physician for minor cuts and bruises.

Detroit Tiges Sign Canadian Catcher

Kitchener, Ont., April 1 (AP)—The Detroit Tigers acquired some reserve strength in the catching department yesterday by signing Harry Psutka, a former receiver for the Kitchener Club in the Ontario Inter-County Baseball League.

Psutka probably will be farmed out to the Toledo Club in the American Association.

The new catcher, who also plays hockey professionally, disclosed the Tiger action in a letter to Kitchener baseball officials.

NASSAU YACHT RACES

Nassau, Bahamas, April 1 (AP)—The finals of the Johnny Walker cup races for star class sailing craft were scheduled today as the week of spring championships neared an end. Patrick O'Gorman of West Long Island Sound and Larchmont, N. Y., sailing Wahini, was leading the field on point tabulations based on the two previous races.

"It Seems To Me"

BY JIM WARD

Cuff notes scratched between here and Gladstone: Attending the Keil recognition dinner in Gladstone last night with Jim Rouman, I escaped unscathed when the subject of hockey was brought up but it was a close shave . . . Everything was in good fun, however, and it was a very enjoyable evening . . . I appreciated very much being invited to join in paying tribute to Cappy Keil and his Gladstone basketball teams.

* * *

Thank you, Gladstone Lions! . . . Also thought your recognition dinner for the Gladstone hockey team was a fine thing . . . Tremendous amount of community spirit . . . Cappy Keil has had so many recognition dinners in his silver anniversary year he has to take a grip on himself every time he dives into a salad . . . It's not true that he's beginning to look like an olive.

* * *

Keil can give and take with the best of them in the lettuce league . . . He claims that the story Toastmaster Bob Skellenger told about the story Keil told about Skellenger when the latter was a basketball guard under Cappy was invented by Jim Damitz . . . If you can follow that one through you're doing well!

* * *

Leonard "Gump" Olson twisted a lot of Lions' tails last night but none quit so hard as when Keil's tongue slipped and he started to thank the Rotary club instead of the Lions club last night . . . Wow! . . . We thought Olson's bank was filled but all the rest of Keil's loose change went in on that one.

* * *

Billy Rajala, captain-elect, got off a quickie that brought the house down when he said "I think we'll do better than we did last year" and, with a sly glance at Coach Keil, "I understand we have some good eighth graders coming up." . . . It was just the right touch after Keil had lauded Strom for his work with the eighth graders and said they showed considerable promise.

* * *

George Mathison's 64-page booklet on 25 years of Gladstone athletic history promises to be an excellent job . . . It's a complete record of all high school teams with credit given where credit is due and fair and square in every detail . . . It will be ready for distribution Monday, Mathison reported.

* * *

Bob Skellenger did a fine job as toastmaster . . . Typical of his ad-lib comments was this offering after Keil thanked the team for the bowling ball bag . . . "I don't know whether that's a good thing or not. We were hoping he'd lose his bowling ball so we could replace him on our team for the U. P. tournament."

* * *

Wallace Cameron's running patter while introducing the 1924-25 team members kept the house in an uproar also . . . All in all, it was a fine dinner . . . The ham was good, too!

Wings Take 3-2 Lead Over Canadiens; Meet Tomorrow In Montreal

Detroit, April 1 (AP)—The Detroit Red Wings were within a single victory of a spot in hockey's Stanley Cup playoff finals today, but it wasn't so much the goals that went in that put them there as one shot that missed.

Detroit went one big game ahead, 3-2, on the Montreal Canadiens in their first round series last night by popping in three last period shots to come from behind and take a 3 to 1 decision before 14,299 howling fans.

They won it with a pair of goals 32 seconds apart by tall Doc Couture and sturdy Gordie Howe. For Howe, the playoff hero, it was his sixth goal of the series and the fifth in the last three games.

But the shot that broke Montreal's back didn't go in. And the fact that it didn't left the Canadiens on the brink of elimination rather than on the verge of victory as the clubs moved back toward Montreal for the sixth game—and maybe the last.

The score was tied 1-1 on Rip Riopelle's tumbling, sprawling second period goal for Montreal and Sid Abel's sizzling angle shot for Detroit five minutes after the final period opened.

A Detroit pass strayed onto the stick of ex-Red Wing Joe Carveth and there were nothing but daylight between him and the Detroit goalie.

Carveth streaked in, aimed carefully and fired his breakaway shot from inside of 10 feet.

Goalie Harry Lumley guessed right and blocked it cleanly to turn the puck aside.

"It would have broken our morale if it had gone in," Detroit Coach Tommy Ivan declared later in the Detroit dressing room.

"Given a 2-1 lead, Montreal would have played it safe and probably beaten us."

But Lumley protected the tie and Couture and Howe took over to sew up the victory in the last 3½ minutes.

Detroit, with two straight victories, now leads the best-of-seven series 3 games to 2.

Another win Saturday night in Montreal will put Detroit in the finals against Toronto, a team that's beaten them twice for the cup in the last four years.

If Montreal can rebound to level this series again they'll play a seventh game back here in Detroit to settle it.

April Fool? This May Be Big Year For Clint Hartung

Phoenix, Ariz., April 1 (AP)—It probably sounds like an April Fool's joke, but honestly, this may be the year for big Clint Hartung.

Clint is the Texas wonder who was converted by the New York Giants from outfielder to pitcher for his own safety.

Clint Hartung

One of the most ballyhooed ballplayers to come out of the Army, Hartung never has found his place in the major leagues. He was supposed to be a phenomenal hitter so the Giants tried him in the outfield. They gave that up when catching flies proved to be an unsolvable mystery to him.

As a pitcher he had a tremendous fast ball. Nothing else.

Now, the Giants claim, Clint has developed a curve. A year ago nobody thought he'd ever learn. A month ago they were sure of it.

But Hartung worked seven innings against Pittsburgh the other day and he threw some balls that didn't stay on a straight line.

"If you don't think he was throwing a curve," said Catcher Walker Cooper, "you forgot what you saw last year. He threw a couple of beauties."

Clint, himself, thinks he has it. "Last year," he says, "too many people were trying to teach me. I'd hear one thing one minute and an entirely different thing two minutes later. I didn't know where I was going. This year (Leo) Durocher put (Frank) Shellenback with me and nobody else. He changed my position on the mound. He shortened my stride and he showed me how to hold the ball. I'm doin' fine."

Wing Defenseman Sues Canada Scribe

Detroit, April 1 (AP)—Defense man Jack Stewart of the Detroit Red Wings filed a $250,000 libel suit yesterday against a Montreal (Que.) newspaper columnist.

Stewart alleged he was libeled in an article by Ed O'Brien of the Montreal Standard in connection with his conduct on the ice in the Detroit-Montreal playoff series.

The suit was filed in Wayne county circuit court.

Intra-Squad Go April 30 Is 1st Test

Thirty-six athletes answered the opening track and field call sounded by Coaches Steve Baltic and Henry Wylie at Escanaba high school and next Monday—weather permitting—are expected to start regular outdoor workouts in preparation for a six-meet season.

The competitive season will open Saturday, April 30, when the Eskymos will engage in an intra-squad meet at the local high school athletic field to give Baltic and Wylie a definite line on "who has what on the ball."

Then, the serious work will start for a strong bid in the triangular meet in Menominee Saturday, May 7. The remainder of the schedule follows: Manistique Invitational, Saturday, May 14; U. P. district meet, Menominee, Saturday, May 21; U. P. finals, Escanaba, Saturday, May 28, and the U. P. relays in Marquette Monday, May 30—the event relinquished by Escanaba last year because of the U. P. finals here.

10 Lettermen

The Eskymo squad, which includes 10 lettermen, has been working out indoors for about two weeks. The preliminary phase covered calisthenics and special exercises for men in various events. Some outdoor running has been done in the field across the street from the high school and will continue whenever weather permits. The move to the field house will be made as soon as possible.

Ten lettermen back this year, Wylie and Baltic report, are Gary Abrahamson, Don Christensen, Dave Johnson, Wayne Sundquist and Howard Perron, all seniors, and Don Lasnoski, Don Martineau, Tom Nault, Con Luecke and Ben Nelson, all juniors.

Referring to the so-called distance squad—the 440, 880 and milers—Coach Wylie said his group of 22 is the largest group he has ever had to work with. His crew includes the 10 lettermen, one of whom, however, does double duty in the field—Perron in the pole vault.

Distance Squad

Of the five senior lettermen, Abrahamson, Dave Johnson, Sundquist and Perron are quartermilers and Christensen performs in the half mile and mile. Other seniors out for the longer jaunts are John Lasnoski, Bob Carter and John Beaumier.

Leading the junior distance men are Don Lasnoski, miler, who placed third in the Upper Peninsula cross country between halves of the Escanaba-Kingsford football game last fall, and Don Martineau, who placed eighth in that event in a fast field and ran a 2:09 half mile in the U. P. finals as a sophomore.

Junior Standouts

Sophomores on the distance squad are Dick Cota, Don Quam, Art March, Jim Valentine, of Golden Glove boxing fame, and David Zerbel.

With Wylie handling the runners in the 440 and up, Baltic is coaching the field events, sprints and hurdles. He is working with a group of 16 promising thinclads, two of whom—Beaumier and Perron—are distance men as well.

The 16 include seven seniors, two juniors and seven sophomores. Seniors are Perron, pole vault; Tom Rice, Jim Erickson, Tom Khollman, shot put; Jim Benard, John Robitaille and Beaumier in the sprints.

Alf Nelson and Axel Anderson are two standauot juniors who saw considerable competition last season and are regarded as potential point-getters this spring. Nelson performs in the hurdles and high jump and Anderson pole vaults and high jumps.

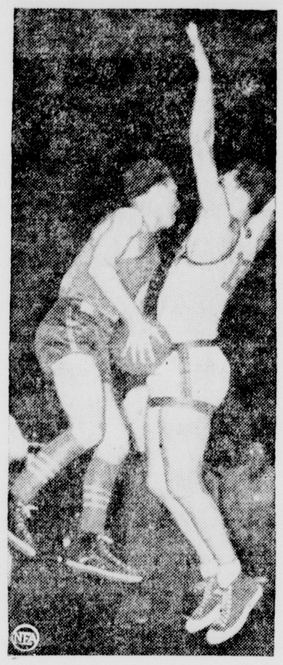

Aim Toward Balance

Dick Shomin, sophomore, is following in the footsteps of his illustrious brother, George, U. P. record holder and currently a member of the Michigan State college track and field team. He is training for the high and low hurdles, high jump and broad jump.

Other sophomore threats are Bob St. Martin, shot put; Bill Hay, sprints and broad jump; Merton McRae, sprints and broad jump; Jerry Bink, sprints and shot put; Dick Larson, hurdles, and John Prokos, low hurdles, pole vault and high jump.

"Several changes may be made, of course," Coach Baltic pointed out. "Outdoor work and particularly the intra-squad meet April 30 will show what events the newer candidates should specialize in.

"We are making no promises but we are aiming toward a squad with as much balance as possible and one that will give a good account of itself in the meets to come."

Olympic Splashers Dominate National AAU Indoor Swim

Daytona Beach, Fla., April 1 (AP)—A big field set out again today in an effort to beat out Olympic champions for National AAU men's indoor swimming crowns.

Yesterday, four of Uncle Sam's Olympic winners came through to national crowns. Joe Verdeur of breast stroke fame led the way with a win in the 300-yard individual medley at record breaking time.

Verdeur, representing Brighton Hotel Swim Club of Atlantic City, swam the event—made up of 100 yards breast stroke, 100 yards backstroke and 100 yards free style—in 3 minutes, 22.9 seconds. It was one second better than the mark Adolph Kiefer set in 1944.

Bruce Harlan of Ohio State added the one meter diving crown to his Olympic laurels. He succeeded former teammate Miller Anderson as National AAU champ and easily outdistanced the field.

Allen Stack of New Haven, Conn., Swim Club, was an easy and expected winner in the 150-yard backstroke at the time of one minute, 30-7 seconds. James Thomas of North Carolina was second to both Verdeur and Stack.

Wally Ris of Iowa copped the 100-yard free style with a strong finishing kick. He did it in 51.4 seconds—good time—but was only three-tenths of a second in front of runner-up Bob Gibe of Detroit Athletic Club.

The three-day meet concludes tomorrow with the 440-yard free style, 300 yard medley relay and three meter diving.

Keil, Gladstone Cagers Honored After 25th Year

1924-25 Team Takes Bow At Lions Dinner

Rajala Named Captain For 1949-50

Gladstone, April 1 — Coach Eldon R. "Cappy" Keil, his first Gladstone high school basketball team of 1924-25, his last (to date) editio of the Braves, the 1948-49 aggregation, and the Lions club's own independent quintet were honored last night at the Gladstone Lions club's twelfth annual basketball recognition dinner served at the Yacht club.

At the conclusion of a formal speaking program and introduction of honored guests, Billy Rajala was announced by Toastmaster Dr. B. H. Skellenger as his teammates' choice to succeed Chuck Green as captain of the Gladstone high school basketball team.

C. V. Money, coach and athletic director of Northern Michigan College of Education, Marquette, paid tribute to Keil on the occasion of his silver anniversary year here and paid tribute to the community as well for their loyalty and cooperation.

Sports Are 'Equalizer'

"It is easy to blame the other fellow," the principal speaker said. "It speaks well for the community that you have given Keil and his teams the fine support you have."

Money briefly traced the development of basketball, America's only native sport, and illustrating his talk with several interesting anecdotes, he pointed out to the players of today that general conditions are much better now than they were in the past.

He emphasized that friendships of fellow participants on athletic teams are usually of the lasting variety and lauded athletics as serving as an "equalizer" for putting participants on the same footing.

1924-25 Cagers

Leslie "Moose" Young, on behalf of the Gladstone reserve team, presented Coach Don Photenhauer with a fishing reel. He responded with a short talk, and after two "visiting firemen", Jim Rouman, Escanaba high school football coach, and Jim Ward, sports editor of the Escanaba Daily Press, paid brief tributes to Keil and Gladstone, Wallace Cameron introduced members of the 1924-25 team.

Six of the 11 members of Cappy's first team were present. They were Cameron himself, now superintendent of Gladstone schools; Capt. Milton Berg, Cleve Moore, Myron Goodman, Elmer Peterson and John Norton. Others are Alton Gircher, Michigan State basketball coach; the late Irving Fillmore, who was killed in action on Leyte; Clifford Goodman, residing in Chicago; Ralph Weingartner, deceased, and Bob Noreus, Cloquet, Minn., who sent a telegram expressing his regret at being unable to attend.

Keil Reviews Season

In responding, Keil reviewed the past season briefly, pointing out in some detail the lessons that were learned by a comparatively young team and assuring that they should show much improvement after absorbing those lessons.

He emphasized that just a minimum of extra effort makes the difference between a champion in any sport and an also-ran. In closing, he thanked the Lions club for their recognition dinner and commended Pfotenhauer and Wallace Strom for their work with the reserves and eighth graders.

Keil Receives Gift

Reserves introduced were John Syverson, Clarence King, Jim LaLonde, Joe "Spider" Sutter, Wayne Marmilick, Harry Rajala, Bill Sundling, Dick Pilon, Tom Wilfong, John "Buck" Dementer and Young. Lion independent players introduced by Manager LeRoy Young, were Richard Williamson, Cliff Gillis, Dave LeGault, Carl Johnson, Giles Richard and Lloyd Young.

Coach Keil was presented with a bowling ball bag by Captain Green as a gift from the 1948-49 team.

Brief responses by Green and Rajala and an announcement by George Mathison regarding the forthcoming 64-page booklet commemorating Cappy and 25 years of Gladstone high school athletic history were made.

Dr. Skellenger served as toastmaster and Fred Siebert, King Lion, presided.

Hogan 'Out Of Rough, Headed Down Fairway'

El Paso, Tex., April 1 (AP)—Plucky little Ben Hogan was on a train today headin' for home.

He'll be back on the links again some day, he says.

The national golf pace setter until an automobile accident last Feb. 2 laid him low, Hogan walked the length of a pullman car last night when he boarded the train here.

He posed for photographers and beamed at the prospect of returning to the new Hogan residence in Fort Worth. He is due to arrive late this afternoon.

The wan but smiling Hogan was accompanied by his wife, Valerie; his brother, Royal, and by Dr. Howard Dittos, Fort Worth physician who came here to make the trip.

Last night he said he is definitely "out of the rough and again headed down the fairway."

He rode in a limousine to the railway station and then moved by wheel chair the 100 remaining yards to the train. He was helped up the steps, but he insisted on walking down the aisle.

At least once, his life was feared for when blood clots developed from his injuries. He suffered multiple fractures when his automobile and a bus crashed near Van Horn, Tex. His wife suffered minor injuries.

Hogan's home is at Fort Worth but he plays out of Hershey, Pa. He was 1948 National Open and National PGA champion and leading money winner of the year. He was leading the cash parade this year until the accident. He has been a top player for 10 years.

Williams, Gavilan Go At It Tonight

New York, April 11 (AP)—Trained to perfection and raring to go, lightweight champion Ike Williams and Kid Gavilan, the slick fighting machine from Cuba, will clash tonight in a ten-round non-title "rubber" bout in Madison Square Garden.

Dead-panned Ike is a 5 to 3 favorite. It's a heavy betting affair with plenty of money showing for both boxers.

Hard-punching Ike won the first bout by unanimous decision, with votes of 5-4-1, 5-4-1 and 6-4. Gavilan evened the count on a split decision, 5-4-1, 5-4-1, 4-4-2. Referee Ruby Goldstein, who handled both bouts, voted for the draw the second time.

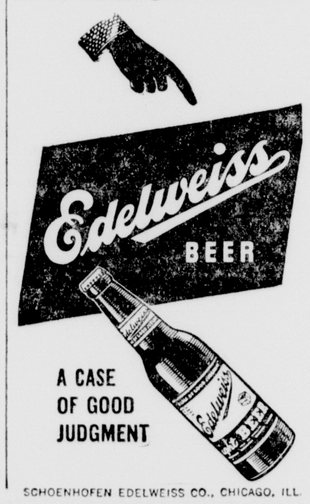

The two fights were so close that Williams and Gavilan were only two rounds apart in the officials' tally for the 20 rounds. Williams received a total of 28 rounds, Gavilan 26 and six were marked even.

This deciding bout shapes up as another thriller. The referee and two judges who get the assignment will be put right on the spot.

Spartan Nine Loses To North Carolina

Raleigh, N. C., April 1 (AP)—Michigan State's Spartans finish a southern baseball training tour today with a game against North Carolina State.

Yesterday MSC bowed 4 to 2 to North Carolina at Chapel Hill, N. C., and conceded the tar heels the edge in their two-game series. The two played a 5-5 tie Wednesday.

CARD OF THANKS

It is with a feeling of sincere gratitude that we take this means of expressing our deep appreciation and thanks to all of our neighbors, relatives and friends for their kindnesses shown us in our recent sad bereavement, the death of our beloved husband and father, Charles Cass. We are very grateful to the Rev. Fathers James Fitzpatrick, O.F.M., Patrick McArron, O.F.M., and Stephen Schneider, O.F.M., for their consoling words and other manifestations of sympathy, to the pallbearers, to those who furnished the use of their cars, sent floral and spiritual bouquets and to all others who in any way helped to lighten our burden of sorrow. Your kindness will always be held in grateful remembrance.
Signed:

MOUSE MAKES LIKE A WREN

Grayville, Ill. (AP)—The sounds with a musical quality prompted Mr. and Mrs. James Girot to peek into their utility room. Possibly a wren had got into the room somehow, they thought.

What they saw so astonished them that they called over a neighbor, Mrs. Mildred Wimsatt. They swear that a mouse was warbling and tweeting with all the gusto of a bird.

Bill Bonifas was a guest at the meeting.

C&NW Conductors Threaten Walkout

Railroad Makes Effort To Head Off Strike

Chicago, April 1 (AP)—The Chicago and North Western Railroad says it will make "every effort" to head off a threatened strike of more than 1,000 of the carrier's conductors.

Frederick H. Nemitz, senior vice president of the Order of Railway Conductors, said the conductors had voted "overwhelmingly."

R. L. Williams, president of the North Western, said the road will seek to have the dispute handled "in accordance with the Railway Labor Act."

The Act provides for appointment of mediators to attempt to settle rail management-union disputes. With the naming of a board, strikes usually are delayed at least until the board has ruled.

Such a board now is functioning and delayed a strike against the nation's railroads which was to have started yesterday by 2,500 pullman car conductors.

A North Western spokesman declined comment on whether a conductors strike would halt service on the carrier's 9,000 miles of track in Illinois, Wisconsin, Michigan, Iowa, Nebraska, Minnesota, North and South Dakota and Wyoming.

Sixth Annual Kite Meet Tomorrow At State Fairgrounds

The Escanaba Kiwanis club's sixth annual kite tournament will be held at the state fairgrounds tomorrow afternoon, beginning at 1:30, under the supervision of the city recreation department.

Three divisions of competition are juvenile 10 to 14., midget up to 10 years and senior over 15 years. Awards will be given for the largest, smallest most unusual and most decorative kite in each division. Kite races also will be held, such as the 100-yard dash, altitude race and messenger race.

Russian Police Nab West Berlin Groups And Confiscate Food

Berlin, Germany (AP)—Hundreds of West Berlin Germans were seized by Russian military police and Soviet-controlled German police in sudden raids on Berlin suburban railroad stations and trains Wednesday night.

The roundups were conducted for the ostensible purpose of checking identifications papers. But only residents of the blockaded western sectors were grabbed.

Most of the west Berliners seized were returning from the surrounding Soviet zone where they had conducted barter with farmers.

They were carted off to control stations where, they related, police confiscated their western currency and food or fuel parcels they were carrying.

Munn In No Hurry To Replace Taylor

East Lansing, April 1 (AP)—The question of who will get the job as end coach at Michigan State College won't be decided for several weeks, head football Coach Biggie Munn said today.

Munn said he already has on file more than 20 applications for the job left vacant by the resignation of La Verne (Kip) Taylor, who is leaving to take over as head coach at Oregon State.

"We may go halfway through spring practice before we get the man we want," Munn said. "I'm in no hurry to find a replacement."

SHE IS NOT AMUSED — With the bands blaring down New York's Fifth Avenue, 2-year-old Mary Ebe adds a little color — and noise—of her own as she voices her opinion of the big parade marking the 128th anniversary of Greek independence. She's dressed in the uniform of the Evzones Guards of the Greek king.

Bullet Taken From Skull of Girl, 3, At Ann Arbor Hospital

Ann Arbor, Mich., April 1 (AP)—Doctors removed a .38-caliber bullet from the skull of a curly-haired little girl today at University hospital.

They said she was in "excellent condition," even though the slug had gone directly through her forehead and lodged in the back of the skull.

Judith Crabb, 3, accidentally shot herself while playing with a revolver Wednesday at her home in Gordonville, Mich., her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Crabb, told police.

"I can't explain why more damage wasn't done," said a doctor at the hospital. Usually, he explained, a slug of that size would explode the skull.

After the shooting, Judith was rushed to Midland hospital and soon afterwards brought here.

Max Lanier, Martin Cases May Be Ruled On By Judge Today

New York, April 1 (AP)—A federal judge was expected to rule today on a court order which would restore Max Lanier and Fred Martin to the good graces of organized baseball.

The two former St. Louis Cardinal pitchers were banned from baseball for five years in 1946 for jumping to the Mexican league.

They sought a temporary injunction lifting the ban and sued baseball for $2,500,000 damages. The suit is pending.

Judge Edward A. Conger has studied briefs in the injunction proceedings for a week.

Today's decision if handed down, probably will be appealed. John L. Flynn, attorney for the players, said he would go immediately to the circuit court of appeals if the ruling was not favorable to Martin and Lanier. He said he understood Mark Hughes, attorney for baseball, planned a similar course.

NCAA BOXING

East Lansing, April 1 (AP)—Michigan State, the University of Wisconsin, Louisiana State and San Jose State loomed as the leading contenders today for the team title at the NCAA Boxing Tournament here next week. Michigan State had seven entries accepted for the College Boxing show here April 7 to 9. The three other schools places six men each.

Porcupine Mountain Trunkline Proposed

Lansing, April 1 —A bill to require the state highway department to build a trunkline highway through the Porcupine Mountains state park was introduced in the House yesterday.

Rep. Louis Mezzano (D-Wakefield), author of the measure, said it was designed to carry out the wishes of the residents of the area who are actively pushing the development of the park as a tourist attraction.

The department, under the bill, would be instructed to continue the present M-107 from Silver City, along the shore of Lake Superior to about the mouth of the Presque Isle river and then south to Ironwood.

Extra Police Guard Cabs In New York Taxi Driver Strike

New York, April 1 (AP)—A tension-fraught taxicab strike started early today. As the morning rush hour began 701 cabs were reported cruising city streets under the protection of 3,000 extra police.

A police department survey at 8 a. m. (EST) showed 421 fleet taxicabs and 280 independents operating over special safety lanes designated by police.

The city has more than 11,000 cabs. Far fewer than usual were rolling today.

There were no immediate reports of violence in the strike, called by the union in its bid for recognition as bargaining agent for the drivers. Union officials had threatened that not "a wheel would roll" once the strike order went out.

An extraordinary police guard, armed with anti-riot weapons, patrolled the streets, seeking to prevent a repetition of bloody violence in the 1934 cab strike.

Spokesmen for both the union and the operators said "skull-cracking goons" had been imported to battle on the streets.

A special regiment of 3,250 police patrolled the city under "gravest emergency" orders, issued only once before—in the first days of World War 2. The entire police department was put on extra duty.

There are 5,750,000 farms in the United States.

Labor Law Put Up To Replace Old Bonine Act

days, they said, they would have the state mediation board certify the dispute to the governor and the governor could appoint a special mediation panel of three disinterested persons who would be required to report in 30 days.

If the board cannot settle the dispute or the governor feels a strike is impending, compulsory arbitration then would be ordered.

The findings of three arbiters would be binding on both sides in a dispute. They would have power to issue oaths and subpoenas and would be required to report within 60 days.

Appeal from the arbitration decision to the state supreme court would be permitted under the bill.

During any arbitration proceedings strikes or lockouts would be forbidden and working conditions could not be changed.

Bonine and Tripp proposed to impose fines of $10,000 for each day a strike or lockout occurred during that time, plus fines of $1,000 or six months jail terms for officers who instigate violations of the law.

Closed Shop Legslized

They define public utilities as agencies servicing water, light, gas, heat, electric power, public passenger service except taxis and communications.

The two G. O. P. senators also tackled other union objections to their law.

They have eliminated in their new bill a provision requiring a majority vote of a bargaining unit to order a strike, substituting a majority vote of those voting. They also would permit the labor mediation board to decide what is the appropriate bargaining agency.

Both of these items were touchy with labor.

They eliminated the necessity for the disputing parties to pay for a strike election.

They would legalize a closed shop under their new bill.

Penalties of $1,000 fine or six months in jail would be imposed for sit-down strikes, interfering with property, interfering with union activity, refusing to bargain in good faith, coercing to join a union or to prevent taking work, or for general violations of the law.

Missing New York Banker Mails His Creditors $75,000

New York, April 1. (AP)—A missing bank official, sought in the disappearance of $883,660 in bank funds, was reported today by the FBI to have mailed more than $75,000 to personal creditors.

Richard H. Crowe, 41, disappeared from his Staten Island home last Sunday. Twenty-four hours later the National City Bank announced the loss of more than three-quarters of a million dollars in cash and securities from a Broadway branch of which he was assistant manager.

The FBI said $76,355 of the missing money has come by mail to individuals and institutions to whom Crowe owed money.

But they probably cannot keep it, a bank spokesman said. He cited a law which he said could be used to force the creditors to give the money back to the bank's insurance company.

Crowe is charged with violating two sections of a Federal Reserve act pertaining to the embezzlement of National Bank funds.

The search for him centered in Florida where he mailed his last letter to his wife earlier in the week from Jacksonville.

Birmingham Jury Fines Sen. Taylor, He Files Appeal

Birmingham, Ala., April 1 (AP)—A circuit court jury pleased just about everybody directly concerned when it convicted Sen. Glen H. Taylor (D-Idaho) of disorderly conduct last night.

The jury fined Taylor $50 and sentenced him to 180 days in jail.

"That's fine," said Taylor. He added that the verdict gives him a chance to test the case in higher courts through appeal. His appeal was filed immediately.

Taylor, then a candidate for vice president on the ticket with Henry Wallace, was arrested by city police May 1. He had attempted to enter a door reserved for Negroes at a meeting of the Southern Negro Youth Congress.

His police court trial May 4 resulted in a fine of $50 and a sentence of 180 days. The jail sentence was suspended. The circuit court trial was on appeal from that convention.

Convicted Nudist Seeks New Trial; Wore Her Sunsuit

Monroe, Mich., April 1 (AP)—An attorney for one of nine convicted nudists said today he will file a motion for a new trial .

Attorney Burton Walters said the motion would be filed in circuit court later today in behalf of Miss Edith Church, 38-year-old Maumee, Ohio, music tacher.

Miss Church, recording secretary of the American Sunbathers Association, and eight others were placed on six months probation and assessed $150 in fines and costs last Saturday.

She contended she was wearing a sun suit at the time of a sheriff's raid on a nudist camp last summer. A state police trooper testified, however, that she was completely unclothed when he chased her through a woods toward her car.

Fog Causes Losses To British Shipping

London, April 1 (AP)—One of the heaviest fogs in years wrapped the southeast English coast for the fifth day today, causing the death of two fishermen and the loss of two small vessels. At least six ships were involved in collisions and another ran aground.

The 403-ton British coaster Charles M. sank last night after colliding with an unknown ship off Dungeness. The crew of seven was rescued.

The bodies of two fishermen were found tangled in the rigging of the wrecked smack Pioneer. Another fisherman was missing. The smack grounded on rocks offshore near Hastings early today.

Peace Hangs On Atomic Bombs, Churchill Says

"We have certainly not an unlimited period of time before a settlement should be achieved," he added.

"The utmost vigilance should be practiced, but I do not think myself that violent or precipitate action should be taken now."

Churchill repeatedly asserted that "We have no hostility to the Russian people," adding:

"We seek nothing from Russia but good will and fair play."

Old Speech Vindicated

He hailed the Marshall plan, the "new unity in western Europe, and the Atlantic pact as demonstrating a "tremendous change in our outlook and policy toward the future of the world."

"Three years ago," Churchill said, "I spoke at Fulton, Missouri, under the auspices of President Truman.

"Many people here and in my own country were startled and even shocked by what I said.

"But events have vindicated and fulfilled in much detail the warnings which I deemed it my duty to give at that time."

(At Fulton, in March, 1946, Churchill lamented the lowering of an "iron curtain" across Europe, assailed Soviet Russian expansion, and called for the fraternal association of the British commonwealth of nations and the United States.)

"Today," Churchill said, "there is a very different climate of opinion.

"No one could, however, have brought about these immense changes in the feeling of the United States, Great Britain and Europe but for the astounding policy of the Russian Soviet government.

"We may well ask: 'Why have they deliberately acted for three long years so as to unite the free world against them'?

"I offer you my own answer to this strange conundrum.

"It is because they fear the friendship of the west more than its hostility.'

People Kept Ignorant

"They cannot afford to allow free and friendly intercourse to grow up between the vast areas they control and the civilization of the west.

"The Russian people must not see what goes on outside, and the world must not see what goes on inside the Soviet domain."

Churchill said that because of the Kremlin policies, relations between Soviet Russia and the rest of the world were "without precedent in history."

"Measures and counter - measures have been taken on many occasions which in any previous period could only have meant armed conflict," he added.

Now, he said, the United Nations organization "remains a key of deliverance."

But, he said, the UN "has so far been rent and distracted by the antagonism of Soviet Russia, and by the fundamental schism which has opened between Communism and the rest of mankind."

"But we must not despair," he said.

"We must persevere, and if the gulf continues to widen, we must make sure that the cause of freedom is defended by all the resources of combined forethought and superior science.

"Here lies the best hope of averting a third world struggle, and a sure means of coming through it without being enslaved or destroyed."

Jobless Sandusky Family Lives Two Weeks In Old Car

Sandusky, Mich., April 1 (AP)—Sanilac county welfare agents are investigating to find out why 22-year-old Joseph Burgett's little family had to live for two weeks in a 1934 model car.

Young Burgett and his wife, 20, have been given food and shelter here, and their two and a-half year old son is being cared for in a hospital by order of Probate Judge George W. Paldi.

Aid came after state police found the family in the old car, parked two miles south of Carsonville.

Burgett said he was penniless after six months of unemployment. Since he last held a steady job, the young father said, he has managed to make enough money at odd jobs to provide food for the child.

However, the parents said they frequently had to go hungry.

"Rented the first day" said Smith.
